An Act for the better management of municipal affairs in mofussil towns and cities.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to the management of municipal affairs in cities and towns in the Bombay Presidency other than the City of Bombay; It is enacted as follows :—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

- Short title. 1. (1) This Act may be cited as the Bombay District Municipal Act, 1901.
- Local extent. (2) It extends to the whole of the Presidency of Bombay, except the ¹City of Bombay.
- Commencement. (3) It shall come into force on the first day of April, 1901.
- Repeal. 2. (1) The Bombay District Municipal Acts of 1873 and 1884 are hereby ^{Bom.} ^{VI of} ¹⁸⁷³ ^{Bom.} ^{II of} ^{1884.} repealed :

Provided that—

Saving clause.

(a) the said repeal shall not affect the validity or invalidity of anything already done under either of the said enactments ;

(b) all municipalities constituted, municipal commissioners appointed or elected, committees established, limits defined, appointments, rules, orders and by-laws made, notifications and notices issued, taxes and rates imposed, contracts entered into, and suits and other proceedings instituted, under the said Acts or under any enactments thereby repealed, shall, so far as may be, be deemed to have been respectively constituted, appointed, elected, established, defined, made, issued, imposed, entered into and instituted under this Act ;

(c) any enactment of the Governor of Bombay in Council, or document referring to any such repealed enactment, shall, so far as may be, be construed to refer to this Act or to the corresponding portion thereof.

(2) Of the ²Bombay Prevention of Adulteration Act, 1899, in section 5 the ^{Bom.} ^{II of} ^{1899.} whole of sub-section (2), and clause (b) of sub-section (3), and in section 6, the whole of sub-section (2) are hereby repealed.

Definitions. 3. In this Act and in the schedules, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context,—

(1) " City Municipality " shall mean any municipality which

(a) is one of those specified in Schedule E, or

(b) has been declared under sub-section (1) of section 181 a City Municipality, and which has not ceased, under sub-section (2) of section 181, to be a City Municipality.

¹ As to the City of Bombay, see the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888 (Bom. 3 of 1888).

² On the coming into operation of the provisions of Bom. 5 of 1925, in any local area in respect of any article of food, so much of the Bombay Prevention of Adulteration Act, 1899 (Bom. 2 of 1899) as has not already been repealed, except section 6, shall be deemed to have been repealed. See Bom. 5 of 1925, section 20.

district, or declare that any local area shall, from a date to be specified in the notification, cease to be a municipal district.

(2) Every such notification constituting a new municipal district, or altering the limits of an existing municipal district, shall clearly set forth the local limits of the area to be included in or excluded from such municipal district, as the case may be. Limits to be specified in notification.

(3) It shall be the duty of the Municipality in every municipal district already existing, and of every Municipality newly constituted under this Act, and of every Municipality whose local limits are altered as aforesaid, to cause, at their own cost, to be erected or set up, if and when so required by the Collector, and thereafter to maintain, at their own cost, substantial boundary marks of such description and in such positions as shall be approved by the Collector, defining the limits or the altered limits of the municipal district subject to its authority, as set forth in the notification. Erection and maintenance of boundary marks.

(4) When any local area ceases to be a Municipal district, the Municipality constituted therein shall cease to exist, and the property and rights vested in any such Municipality shall, subject to all charges and liabilities affecting the same, vest in His Majesty, and the proceeds thereof, if any, shall be expended under the orders of the [Provincial Government] for the benefit of the local areas in which such Municipality had jurisdiction. Property and rights of Municipality which has ceased to exist to vest in His Majesty.

5. Municipal districts constituted under section 4 may be either periodical or permanent. Municipal districts to be periodical or permanent.

6. Any local area in which a periodical fair is held or which is visited periodically by pilgrims, together with any neighbouring local area to which the people attending such fair or the pilgrims resort whilst such fair or pilgrimage lasts, may be declared a periodical municipal district at and throughout certain specified recurring seasons. What local areas may be declared to be periodical municipal districts.

7. (1) Any local area which comprises—

(a) a city, town or station, or two or more neighbouring cities, towns and stations, with or without any village, suburb, or land adjoining thereto, or

(b) a village or suburb or two or more neighbouring villages and suburbs, may be declared a permanent municipal district : What local areas may be declared to be permanent municipal districts.

Provided that, except—

(a) in the case of hill-stations, or

(b) for exceptional reasons, which shall be clearly set forth in the proclamation under section 8 and in the notification issued under section 4, it shall not be lawful—

(i) to include any city, town, station or suburb in a permanent municipal district with any other city, town, station or suburb from which it is separated by an extent of more than one mile of land unoccupied by houses ; or

(ii) to constitute any municipal district in any area of which the population is less than two thousand.

(2) When two or more places bearing different names are formed into one municipal district, the name of the municipal district shall be determined by the Commissioner. Naming of municipal districts comprising two or more places.

Permanent municipal districts.

8. (1) Not less than two months before the publication of any notification declaring any local area a permanent municipal district, or altering the limits of any such district, or declaring that any local area shall cease to be a municipal district, the ¹[Provincial Government] shall cause to be published in the ²[Official Gazette], in English, and in at least one of the local newspapers, if any, in the language of the district in which such local area is situated, and to be posted up in conspicuous spots in the said local area in the language of the said district, a ³proclamation announcing that it is proposed to constitute such local area a municipal district, or to alter the limits of the municipal district in a certain manner, or to declare that such local area shall cease to be a municipal district, as the case may be, and requiring all persons who entertain any objection to the said proposal to submit the same, with the reasons therefor, in writing to the Collector within two months from the date of the said proclamation, and whenever it is proposed to add to or exclude from a municipal district any inhabited area, it shall be the duty of the Municipality also to cause a copy of such proclamation to be posted up in conspicuous places in such area.

(2) The Collector shall, with all reasonable despatch, forward every objection so submitted to ⁴[the Provincial Government].

(3) No such notification as aforesaid shall be issued by the ¹[Provincial Government] unless the objections, if any, so submitted are, in ⁵[its] opinion insufficient or invalid.

(2) Municipalities.

Constitution and incorporation of Municipalities.

9. In every municipal district there shall be a Municipality, and every such Municipality shall be a body corporate by the name of "The Municipality of —", and shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, and may sue and be sued in their corporate name.

 - ³[(f) fails to pay any arrears of any kind due by him to the municipality within three months after a special notice in this behalf has been served upon him]; he shall ⁴[subject to the provisions of sub-section (3)] be disabled from continuing to be a councillor and his office shall become vacant.

Disabilities from continuing a councillor.

⁵[(3) In every case, the authority competent to decide whether a vacancy has occurred under this section shall be the Collector. The Collector may give his decision either on an application made to him by any person or on his own motion. Until the Collector decides that the vacancy has arisen, the councillor shall not be disabled under sub-section (2) from continuing to be a councillor. An appeal shall lie against every such decision of the Collector to the Provincial Government in the case of city municipalities and to the Commissioner in other cases and the orders passed by the Provincial Government or the Commissioner in such appeal shall be final :

(b) the term of office of the outgoing councillors shall be deemed to extend to and expire with the day before the date of such meeting.]

vacancies
how to be filled up.

18. In the event of the death, resignation, disqualification, disability or removal of a councillor previous to the expiry of his term of office, the vacancy shall be filled up, as soon as it conveniently may be, by the election or appointment, as the case may be, of a person thereto, who shall hold office so long only as the councillor in whose place he is elected or appointed would have held it if the vacancy had not occurred.

Re-eligibility of councillors.

19. A person who has already been elected or appointed a councillor on one or more occasions shall, if otherwise duly qualified, be eligible at any time for re-election or re-appointment.

Publication
of names of councillors in the Official Gazette.

20. The names of all councillors finally elected to any Municipality, as well as the names of the nominated councillors, if any, appointed thereto, shall be published, as soon as conveniently may be, in the ²[Official Gazette].

(4) Municipal Elections.

General
disqualifications of voters.

21. No person who is less than twenty-one years of age shall be entitled to vote at any municipal election.

Determination of validity of elections.

22. (1) If the validity of any election of a councillor is brought in question by any person qualified either to be elected or to vote at the election to which such question refers, such person may, at any time within ten days after the date of the declaration of the result of the election, apply to the District Judge of the district within which the election has been or should have been held :

¹ Section 17 was renumbered as section 17(1) by Bom. 26 of 1930, s. 2 (1).

² The words "Official Gazette" were substituted for the words "Bombay Government Gazette" by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

³ This proviso was added by Bom. 26 of 1930, s. 2 (1).

⁴ Sub-section (2) was inserted, ibid., s. 2(2).

[Provided that in the case of any election of a councillor of a municipality in any area specified in Part II of Schedule A to the Greater Bombay Laws and the Bombay High Court (Declaration of Limits) Act, 1945, this sub-section shall be construed as if for the words "of the district within which the election has been or should have been held" the words "of Thana" were substituted.]

(2) ²[An inquiry shall thereupon be held by a Judge, not below the grade of an Assistant Judge, appointed by the ³[Provincial Government] either specially for the case or for such cases generally, and such Judge] may, after such inquiry as he deems necessary, and subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), pass an order confirming or amending the declared result of the election, or setting the election aside. For the purposes of the said inquiry the said Judge may summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses, and compel them to give evidence as if he were a Civil Court, and he may also direct by whom the whole or any part of the costs of any such inquiry shall be paid, and such costs shall be recoverable as if they had been awarded in a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure. The decision or order shall be conclusive. If he sets aside an election, a date shall forthwith be fixed and the necessary steps taken for holding a fresh one.

⁴[(2A) All applications received under sub-section (1)—

(a) in which the validity of the election of councillors elected to represent the same constituency is in question shall be heard by the same Judge; and

(b) in which the validity of the election of the same councillor elected to represent the same constituency is in question shall be heard together.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section a constituency shall mean each ward or a public body or association constituted or entitled to elect councillors.]

⁴[(2B) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, the Judge shall not permit (a) any application to be compromised or withdrawn or (b) any person to alter or amend any pleading, unless he is satisfied that such application for compromise or withdrawal or the application for such alteration or amendment is bona fide and not collusive.]

(3) (a) The Judge, if satisfied that a candidate has, within the meaning of sub-section (4), committed any corrupt practice for the purpose of the election, shall declare the candidate disqualified both for the purpose of that election, and of such fresh election as may be held under sub-section (2), and shall set aside the election of such candidate if he has been elected.

(b) If in any case to which clause (a) does not apply, the validity of an election is in dispute between two or more candidates, the Judge shall, after a scrutiny and computation of the votes recorded in favour of each such candidate, declare the candidate who is found to have the greatest number of valid votes in his favour, to have been duly elected:

Provided that for the purpose of such computation no vote shall be reckoned as valid if the Judge finds that any corrupt practice was committed by any person, known or unknown, in giving or obtaining it.

¹ This proviso was added by Bom. 17 of 1945, s. 9, sch. E, read with Bom. 52 of 1947, s. 2, proviso.

² These words were substituted for the words "The District Judge or such other Judge as may be appointed by the Governor in Council on this behalf" by s. 5(2) of the Bombay Municipal and Local Boards (Amendment) Act, 1917 (Bom. 6 of 1917).

³ The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Governor in Council" by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

⁴ Sub-sections (2A) and (2B) were inserted by Bom. 14 of 1936, s. 2 (1).

What is a corrupt
practice.

(4) A person shall be deemed to have committed a corrupt practice within the meaning of the last preceding sub-section,

(i) who with a view to inducing any voter to give or to refrain from giving a vote in favour of any candidate, offers or gives any money or valuable consideration, or holds out any promise of individual profit or holds out any threat of injury, to any person, or,

(ii) who gives, procures, or abets the giving of a vote in the name of a voter who is not the person giving such vote.

Candidate
when deemed to have committed
practice.

And a corrupt practice shall be deemed to have been committed by a candidate, if it has been committed with his knowledge and consent, or by a person who is acting under the general or special authority of such candidate with reference to the election.

Promise of individual profit.

Explanation.—A "promise of individual profit" includes a promise for the benefit of the person himself, or of any one in whom he is interested. It does not include a promise to vote for or against any particular municipal measure.

(5) If the validity of the election is brought in question only on the ground of any error by the officer or officers charged with carrying out the rules made under clause (c) ¹[of sub-section (1)] of section 11, or of an irregularity or informality not corruptly caused, the Judge shall not set aside the election.

Disqualification of
candidate
for corrupt
practice.

(6) If the Judge sets aside an election under clause (a) of sub-section (3), he may, if he thinks fit, declare any person by whom any corrupt practice has been committed within the meaning of this section, to be disqualified from being a candidate in that or any other municipal district for a term of years not exceeding seven, and the Judge's decision shall be conclusive: provided, however, that such person may by an order which the ²[Provincial Government] is hereby empowered to make if ³[it] shall think fit, in that behalf, be at any time relieved from such disqualification.

Corrupt
practices:
criminal offences and procedure.

⁴[22A. (1) (a) Whoever in any election under this Act, directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person on his behalf, shall, with a view to inducing any voter to give or to refrain from giving a vote in favour of any candidate, offer or give any money or valuable consideration or hold out any promise of individual profit or hold out any threat of injury to any person, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees for every such offence.

(b) whoever shall give, procure, or abet the giving of a vote in the name of a voter, who is not the person giving such vote,

(2) Whoever, being qualified to vote at any election under this Act or claiming to be so qualified, accepts or obtains or agrees to accept or attempts to obtain for himself or for any other person any money or valuable consideration or any individual profit as a motive or reward for giving or forbearing to give his vote in any such election shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees for every such offence.

(4) An offence under this section shall not be triable by a Criminal Court inferior to that of a Magistrate of the first class and shall not be triable in a summary way.

(5) No Court shall take cognizance of any offence under this section except on the complaint of the Judge who has held an inquiry under section 22, or before whom such inquiry is pending.

(6) No prosecution for an offence under this section shall be instituted except within the six months next after the date of the declaration of the result of the election.

(7) An appeal shall lie to the Court of Session against any sentence or order passed by a Magistrate under sub-section (1), sub-section (2) or sub-section (3).]

(5) Presidents and Vice-Presidents.

23. (1) Every Municipality shall be presided over by a president who shall be selected from among the councillors.

(b) by the Municipality, in the case of an elected president or of a vice-president: Provided that such leave to a vice-president shall be subject to the approval

(i) of the ²[Provincial Government], in the case of a vice-president elected subject to the approval of the ²[Provincial Government], or

(ii) of the Commissioner, in the case of a vice-president elected subject to the approval of the Commissioner.

Limit to grant of leave, and arrangements pending absence of vice-president.

(6) Leave under the last preceding sub-section shall not be granted for a period exceeding six months, and whenever leave is granted to a vice-president under that sub-section a councillor shall be elected, subject to the conditions to which the election of the vice-president so absents himself was subject, to perform all the duties and exercise all the powers of a vice-president during the period for which such leave is granted.

Liability of president and vice-president to removal and term of office.

(7) Every president and every vice-president shall be removable from his office as such president or vice-president by the ²[Provincial Government] for misconducts or neglect of or incapacity to perform his duty, and the term of office of every president, and of every vice-president; shall cease on the expiry of his term of office; as councillor.

President and vice-president to continue to carry on certain duties until their successors take over charge.

⁵(8) In the case of a municipality the president of which is elected under clause (c) of sub-section (2), when a new municipality is constituted after a general election or otherwise, the Collector, or such other officer as the Collector may by order in writing authorise in this behalf, shall call a meeting for the election of a new president and vice-president. Such meeting shall be called within twenty-five days from the date on which the names of the councillors of the new municipality are published in the Official Gazette under section 20, but shall not be held on a date prior to the date on which the term of office of the retiring councillors prescribed or extended, as the case may be, under sub-section (1) of section 17 expires, or which is fixed for the dissolution of the municipality under sub-section (2) of section 179, or on which the municipality is re-established under sub-section (5) of section 179 after its supersession, as the case may be.

(9) The meeting called under sub-section (8) shall, until the municipality elects its own chairman for that meeting, be presided over by one of the persons appointed by the Collector in the manner hereinafter provided if the meeting is called by the Collector or, by one of the persons appointed by an officer authorised in this behalf by the Collector if the meeting is called by such officer.

(10) For the purposes of sub-section (9), the Collector or the officer authorised by the Collector to call the meeting, as the case may be, shall select three persons who shall be councillors of the new municipality after obtaining their consent in writing to the selection, and shall arrange their names in a list in order of preference. The retiring president, if any, and the retiring vice-president, if any, shall, if they consent, be among the persons selected and shall, if both of them consent, be placed respectively first and second in the list. If either the retiring president or the retiring vice-president alone consents, he shall be placed first in the list. The person whose name is placed first in the list shall preside at the meeting called under sub-section (8), but if such person is absent or is unable or fails for any reason to preside, the person whose name is placed second in the list shall preside. If the persons whose names are placed first and second in the list are both absent or are unable or fail for any reason to preside, the person whose name is placed third shall preside. If none of the three persons named in the list is present or able or willing to preside the meeting shall not be held, and the Collector, or the officer authorised by the Collector to call the meeting, as the case may be, shall as soon as may be, call a fresh meeting and shall select three other persons in the manner prescribed above, one of whom shall preside thereat in the order specified above.

(11) If in the election of a chairman for the meeting called under sub-section (8) there is an equality of votes, the result of the election shall be decided by lot to be drawn in the presence of the person presiding in such manner as he may determine. As soon as a chairman is elected he shall take the chair, and the meeting shall then proceed to elect the new president. The president shall take the chair as soon as he is elected and the meeting shall then proceed to elect the new vice-president.

(12) In the case of a municipality the president of which is appointed under clause (a) or (b) of sub-section (2) when a new municipality is constituted after a general election or otherwise, the municipality shall elect a vice-president at the first meeting held of such municipality.

(13) In the event of the non-acceptance of office, death, resignation or removal from office of a president, other than an ex-officio president, or of a vice-president, or of his election being void or of his becoming incapable of acting in such office or having ceased to be a president or a vice-president under sub-section (5), or a councillor under sub-section (2) of section 15, previous to the expiry of his term of office as president or vice-president, the vacancy shall be filled up within twenty-five days from the occurrence of the vacancy by the election or appointment, as the case may be, of some other councillor thereto. The provisions of sub-sections (8), (9), (10) and (11) shall be applicable so far as may be, to the calling of a meeting and the procedure to be followed at such meeting for the election of a president under this sub-section.]

CHAPTER III.

CONDUCT OF BUSINESS.

(1) Municipal meetings.

26. The following provisions shall be observed with respect to the meetings of a Municipality :—

Provisions in regard to meetings of a Municipality.

(1) Except in periodical Municipalities and in Municipalities at hill-stations there shall be held four ordinary general meetings in each year for the disposal of general business, on or about the tenth day of the months of January, April, July and October, respectively, and such other ordinary general meetings as the president may find necessary. In Municipalities at hill-stations there shall be held one ordinary general meeting on or about the tenth day of April, and not less than one other ordinary general meeting for the purpose aforesaid, in each year. In every periodical Municipality there shall be such and so many ordinary general meetings, as the president thereof shall from time to time determine. It shall be the duty of the president to fix the dates for all ordinary general meetings.

Ordinary general meetings.

(2) The president may, whenever he thinks fit, and shall, upon the written request of not less than one-fourth of the councillors, call a special general meeting.

Special general meetings.

(3) Seven clear days' notice of an ordinary general meeting, and three clear days' notice of a special general meeting, specifying the time and place at which such meeting is to be held and the business to be transacted thereat shall be circulated to the councillors, and posted up at the municipal office or the local kacheri or some other public building in the municipal district. The said notice shall include any motion or proposition which a councillor shall have given written notice not less than ten days previous to the meeting of his intention to bring forward thereat, and, in the case of a special general meeting, any motion or proposition mentioned in any written request made for such meeting.

Notice to be given of meetings.

(4) Every meeting of a Municipality shall, except for reasons to be specified in the notice convening the meeting, be held in the building used as a municipal office by such Municipality.

Municipal meetings to be held at municipal office.

(5) Every meeting shall, in the absence of both the president and vice-president, be presided over by such one of the councillors present as may be chosen by the meeting to be chairman for the occasion, and such chairman shall exercise thereat the powers vested in the president by clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 24.

Every meeting how presided over in the absence of the president and the vice-president.

(6) Every meeting shall be open to the public unless the presiding authority deems any inquiry or deliberation pending before the Municipality such as should be held in private, and provided that the said authority may at any time cause any person to be removed who interrupts the proceedings.

Meeting must ordinarily be open to the public.

(7) If in a City Municipality less than one-third, and in any other Municipality less than one-half, of the whole number of councillors be present at a meeting at any time from the beginning to the end thereof, the presiding authority shall adjourn the meeting to such hour on the following or some other future day as he may reasonably fix, and a notice of such adjournment shall be fixed up in the municipal office, and the business which would have been brought before the original meeting, had there been a quorum thereat, shall be brought before the adjourned meeting and may be disposed of at such meeting or at any subsequent adjournment thereof whether there be a quorum present or not.

Number of councillors required to form a quorum.

What business to be transacted at meetings and order of business how to be settled.

(8) Except with the permission of the presiding authority, which permission shall not be given in the case of a motion or proposition to modify or cancel any resolution within three months after the passing thereof, no business shall be transacted and no proposition shall be discussed at any general meeting unless it has been mentioned in the notice convening such meeting or, in the case of a special general meeting, in the written request for such meeting. The order in which any business that may be transacted or any proposition that may be discussed at any meeting in accordance with this sub-section, shall be brought forward at such meeting, shall be determined by the presiding authority, who in case it is proposed by any member to give priority to any particular item of such business, or to any particular proposition shall put the proposal to the meeting and be guided by the majority of votes given for or against the proposal.

Minutes of proceedings to be kept.

(9) In every City Municipality there shall be kept in English, and, if the Municipality so resolve, in the vernacular language also, and in every other Municipality there shall be kept in the vernacular language, and if the Municipality so resolve in English, either in lieu of or in addition to the vernacular, minutes of the names of the councillors and of the ¹[servants of the Crown], if any, present under the provisions of sub-section (14), and of the proceedings at each general meeting, in a book to be provided for this purpose, which shall be signed, as soon as practicable, by the presiding authority of such meeting, and shall at all reasonable times be open to inspection by any inhabitant of the municipal district.

All questions to be decided by a majority of votes.

(10) All questions shall be decided by a majority of votes of the councillors present and voting, the presiding authority, save as provided in sub-section (2) of section 24, having a second or casting vote in all cases of equality of votes. Votes shall be taken and results recorded in such manner as may be prescribed by rules in that behalf for the time being in force under clause (a) of section 46.

Adjournments of meetings.

(11) Any general meeting may, with the consent of a majority of the councillors present, be adjourned from time to time; but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than that left undisposed of at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

Modification and cancellation of resolutions.

(12) No resolution of a Municipality shall be modified or cancelled within three months after the passing thereof except by a resolution supported by not less than one-half of the whole number of councillors and passed at the general meeting whereof notice shall have been given fulfilling the requirements of sub-section (3) and setting forth fully the resolution which it is proposed to modify or cancel at such meeting and the motion or proposition for the modification or cancellation of such resolution.

¹ The words "servants of the Crown" were substituted for the words "Government officers" by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

(13) Except for reasons which the presiding authority deems emergent, no business relating to any work which is being executed for the Municipality by a Government Executive Engineer, or to any education matter, shall be transacted at any meeting of a Municipality unless, at least fifteen days previous to such meeting, a letter has been addressed to the said Executive Engineer or to the Educational Inspector of the district, informing him of the intention to transact such business thereat, and of the motions or propositions to be brought forward concerning such business.

Notice of certain business to be given to the Government Executive Engineer or Educational Inspector.

(14) (a) The members of the Sanitary Board, and the Executive Engineer, Educational Inspector and Deputy Sanitary Commissioner of a district, and the Civil Surgeon in a district when charged with any of the duties of a health officer therein, if not members of a Municipality within the district, shall have the right of being present at any meeting of such Municipality, and, with the consent of the Municipality, each of them may take part at such meeting in the discussion or consideration of any question, on which, in virtue of the duties of his office, he considers his opinion or the information which he can supply will be useful to such Municipality :

Certain servants of the Crown may attend meetings of Municipalities.

Provided that the said officers shall not, unless they are members of the Municipality, be entitled to vote upon any such question.

(b) If it shall appear to a Municipality that the presence of the Executive Engineer, Educational Inspector, Deputy Sanitary Commissioner or Civil Surgeon of or in the district, is desirable for the purpose aforesaid at any future meeting of such Municipality, it shall be competent to such Municipality, by letter addressed to such officer not less than fifteen days previous to the intended meeting, to require his presence thereat ; and the said officer unless prevented by sickness, or other reasonable cause, shall be bound to attend such meeting :

Municipalities may require the presence of the said servants of the Crown at their meetings.

Provided that such officer on receipt of such letter may, if unable to be present himself, instruct a Deputy or Assistant or other competent subordinate as to his views, and may send him to the meeting as his representative, instead of appearing thereat in person.

¹[26A. A Municipal Commissioner shall have the same right of being present at a meeting of the Municipality and of taking part in the discussions thereat as a councillor and with the consent of a majority of the councillors present, ascertained by a show of hands, without discussion, may at any time make a statement or explanation of facts, but he shall not be at liberty to vote upon, or to make any proposition at such meeting.]

Right of Municipal Commissioner to be present and to speak at municipal meetings.

(2) Committees.

27. (1) In every Municipality there shall be a committee called the managing committee, consisting of such number of councillors not exceeding nine or less than four, as may have been elected for a period not exceeding one year, in accordance with rules under clause (a) of section 46 :

Managing committees.

Provided that in any municipal district where there is a Chamber of Commerce, such Chamber shall, if the ²[Provincial Government] so directs be entitled to elect one councillor to be a member of the managing committee.

¹ Section 26A was inserted by s. 9 of the Bombay District Municipal Amendment Act, 1914 (Bom. S of 1914).

² The words " Provincial Government " were substituted for the words " Governor in Council " by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

Powers of managing committees.

(2) The managing committee shall, subject
(i) to any limitations prescribed by the Municipality specially in this behalf and generally by rules made under clause (a) of section 46, and (ii) to the provisions of Chapter XIII ¹[and Chapter XIII A], exercise all the powers of the Municipality :

Provided that no managing committee shall exercise—

(a) any powers in connection with any school or educational institution in respect of which a committee is appointed under section 28, or

(b) any powers with which any committee appointed under section 29 is vested,

²[(c) any powers of the Pilgrim Committee appointed under section 27A.]

Pilgrim Committee.

³[27A. (1) In every municipality notified by ⁴[the Provincial Government] in this behalf there shall be a committee called the Pilgrim Committee consisting ⁵[of four councillors of whom one shall be the President of the Municipality and the other three shall be elected in accordance with rules made under clause (a) of section 46 and of two persons appointed by the Provincial Government, both of whom may be salaried servants of the Crown.]

(2) The members of the Pilgrim Committee shall hold office for the term of office of the councillors and thereafter up to the date on which a new Pilgrim Committee is constituted in accordance with the provisions of this section. In the case of supersession of the municipality or of the Pilgrim Committee, a new Pilgrim Committee shall be constituted by the Commissioner. Such Committee shall consist of six persons nominated by the Commissioner and shall continue until the municipality is re-established, and a new Pilgrim Committee is constituted in accordance with the provisions of this section, or, in case of supersession of the Pilgrim Committee, until the Pilgrim Committee is re-established.

(3) The Pilgrim Committee shall manage and administer the pilgrim fund established under proviso (c) to section 51 and shall exercise the powers and perform the duties of the municipality in respect of the said fund, subject to such limitations and restrictions as may be prescribed by the municipality by rules made in this behalf under clause (aa) of section 46.

(4) All the provisions of this Act relating to the duties, powers, liabilities, disqualifications and disabilities of councillors shall be applicable, so far as may be, to the members nominated on the Pilgrim Committee.

(5) In the event of the death, resignation, disqualification, disability or removal of a nominated member previous to the expiry of his term of office, the vacancy shall be filled up by the appointment of a person thereto who shall hold office so long only as the person in whose place he is appointed would have held it if the vacancy had not occurred ;

(6) Section 36 shall not apply to the Pilgrim Committee ; provided that the municipality shall have power, at any time, to call for any extract from any proceedings of the Pilgrim Committee, and for any return, statement of account or report concerning or connected with any matter with which the Pilgrim Committee deals and every such requisition shall, without unreasonable delay, be complied with by the Pilgrim Committee.

(7) The provisions of sections 170, 171 and 172 shall, so far as may be, apply to the Pilgrim Fund Account and the Pilgrim Committee shall, with respect to the preparation and submission to the municipality of its annual budget, follow the following procedure, namely :—

“ The Pilgrim Committee shall in sufficient time submit its annual budget and all alterations therein to the municipality for consideration, and, if the municipality agree to it, for its incorporation in the general municipal budget. If the municipality do not agree to the budget as framed by the Pilgrim Committee, they shall return it to the Pilgrim Committee, for reconsideration, either in whole or in part, together with any alterations which they may recommend, and if the Pilgrim Committee agrees to these alterations, the budget so altered shall be incorporated in the general municipal budget. If the municipality and the Pilgrim Committee fail to reach an agreement, the budget with a statement of the points in dispute shall be referred by the municipality to the Commissioner, whose decision on such points shall be final.”

(8) The provisions of sections 173, 174, 175, 178 and 179 shall apply to a Pilgrim Committee, and in their application to a Pilgrim Committee the said sections shall be construed, so far as may be, as if for the word ‘ municipality ’ occurring in the said sections the words ‘ Pilgrim Committee ’ were substituted, and as if the words “ other than a city municipality in such taluka ” occurring in sub-section (2) of section 173 were omitted.]

28. The Municipality may appoint, subject to such limitations as are prescribed by the rules for the time being in force under section 46 and subject also to the proviso contained in ¹[section 58], a committee consisting of such councillors as they think fit, for managing all or any primary or other schools vested in or maintained by the Municipality, or for conducting the business of the Municipality in respect of any educational institutions aided by the Municipality. School committees.

29. Subject to the limitations prescribed by the rules aforesaid, the Municipality may appoint, for a period not exceeding one year, any such committee or such or so many committees consisting of such councillors as they think fit for any purpose or respectively for any of the purposes, other than those specified in section 28, for which a managing committee may, under section 27, exercise the powers of a Municipality, and may invest each committee so appointed with such of the said powers as may be necessary or expedient for the fulfilment of the purpose for which it is appointed ²[not being, where a Pilgrim Committee is appointed, powers or duties referred to in section 27A]. Other executive committees.

30. The Municipality may from time to time appoint such or so many other committees consisting of such councillors as they think fit, and may refer to such committees for inquiry and report, or for opinion, such special subjects relating to the purposes of this Act as the Municipality shall think fit, and may at any time discontinue, or alter the constitution of, any such committee. The Municipality may direct that the report of any such committee shall be made to the managing committee, instead of to the Municipality. Consultative committees.

When persons other than councillors may serve on committees.

31. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, it shall be lawful for the Municipality from time to time, by a resolution supported by not less than one-half of the whole number of councillors, to appoint, as members of any committee under section 28, 29 or 30, any persons of either sex, who are not councillors, but who may in the opinion of such Municipality possess special qualifications for serving on such committee: provided that the number of persons so appointed on any committee shall not exceed one-third of the total number of the members of such committee.

Duties, etc., of such persons.

All the provisions of this Act relating to the duties, powers, liabilities, disqualifications and disabilities of councillors shall, * * * * * be applicable so far as may be to such persons.

Casual vacancies—re-eligibility.

32. A vacancy occurring in a managing committee shall, as soon as possible, and a vacancy occurring in any other committee may be filled up by the election of a member from among the general body of councillors subject to the same provisions as those under which the member whose place is to be filled up, was elected. A councillor shall be eligible at any time for re-election as a member of any such committee notwithstanding that he has previously been a member of that committee.

When Chairman to be ex-officio.

33. (1) The president or vice-president, if appointed a member of any committee, shall be ex-officio chairman thereof.

2* * * *

When no ex-officio chairman, Municipality may appoint chairman.

(2) The Municipality may appoint a chairman for every committee of which there is no ex-officio chairman.

When ex-officio or appointed chairman does not attend meeting, committee may appoint chairman of meeting.

(3) Every committee, of which there is an ex-officio chairman or a chairman appointed by the Municipality, shall, at each meeting which such chairman does not attend as chairman, appoint from its members a chairman for such meeting.

If there is no chairman ex-officio or appointed by the Municipality, committee may appoint chairman.

(4) Every committee, of which there is no ex-officio chairman or chairman appointed by the Municipality, shall appoint from time to time its own chairman from among its own members.

Procedure at meetings.

34. (1) The provisions of sub-sections (4), (9), (10) and (14) of section 26 shall be complied with in all proceedings of committees as if meetings of committees were included in all references to meetings of a Municipality contained in those provisions, and as if for the word "Municipality", where it occurs in the proviso to clause (a) of sub-section (14) of section 26, there were substituted the word "committee":

¹ The words "save as regards the disqualification on the ground of sex," were repealed by Bom. 4 of 1924, s. 4.

² The proviso which was added by Bom. 4 of 1930, s. 2 (iv), was omitted by Bom. 9 of 1938, s. 5

¹[Provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in sub-section (9) of section 26, committees may record their proceedings either in English or in the vernacular language, as they may think fit.]

(2) Committees may meet and adjourn as they think proper, but the chairman of the committee may, whenever he thinks fit, and shall, upon the written request of the president of the Municipality or of not less than two members of a committee, call a special meeting of such committee.

(3) No business shall be transacted at any committee meeting unless more than one-half of the members of the committee be present thereat.

Committees may meet when they think proper.

Number of members required to form a quorum at committee meetings.

35. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the preceding section the chairman of the committee, whenever it appears to him unnecessary to convene a meeting, may, instead of so doing, circulate a written proposition of his own, or of any other member of the committee, or of any executive officer of the Municipality, for the observations and votes of the members of the committee.

Procedure by circular.

(2) Previous to circulating any such proposition as aforesaid, the chairman may, if he thinks fit, and, if the business to which it relates is of the nature described in sub-section (13) of section 26, shall obtain thereupon the remarks, if any, which any ²[servant of the Crown], not a councillor, whose presence the Municipality would be entitled to require under the provisions of clause (b) of sub-section (14) of section 26, desires to record.

Propositions when to be sent to servants of the Crown for remarks.

(3) The decision on any proposition so circulated shall be in accordance with the majority of votes of the members of the committee who vote upon it, unless a special meeting is convened to consider the said proposition.

Decisions how to be taken on propositions circulated : and how to be recorded.

(4) Every decision arrived at by the committee under this section shall be recorded in the minute-book kept under sub-section (9) of section 26.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, the ³[Commissioner] may by notification authorize the adoption by any Municipality specified in such notification not being a City Municipality, of the procedure prescribed by this section for the disposal of any business, whenever the president of such Municipality may deem it unnecessary to convene a general meeting for the purpose of such business.

Procedure by circular when applicable to other municipal business.

36. (1) Every committee shall conform to any instructions that may from time to time be given to them by the Municipality ; the Municipality may, at any time, call for any extract from any proceedings of any committee, and for any return statement or account or report concerning or connected with any matter with which any committee has been authorized or directed to deal, and every such requisition shall, without unreasonable delay, be complied with by the committee so called upon.

Subordination of committees to instructions of Municipality and compliance with requisitions of Municipality.

² The words "servant of the Crown" were substituted for the words "Government officer" by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

³ This word was substituted for the words "Governor in Council" by Sch. I of the Bombay Decentralization Act, 1915 (Bom. 3 of 1915).

Order subject to revision and appeal. (2) Every order passed by a managing committee or by a committee appointed under section 28 or 29, other than orders under sub-section (3) of section 65, shall be subject to such revision, and open to such appeal as may be required or allowed in respect thereof by any rules of the Municipality for the time being in force under section 46.

(3) Delegations of powers to individuals.

Powers, duties and functions may be delegated to officers whose expenses may be paid. 37. Any powers or duties or executive functions which may be exercised or performed by or on behalf of the Municipality may be delegated in accordance with rules to be made by the Municipality in this behalf, to the president or to the vice-president, or to the chairman of the managing, school or other committee, or to one or more stipendiary or honorary officers, but without prejudice to any powers that may have been conferred on a chief officer in a City Municipality under Chapter XIII or on any committee by or under section 27, ¹[27A], 28 or 29; and each person, who exercises any power or performs any duty or function so delegated, may be paid all expenses necessarily incurred by him therein :

²[Provided that in a municipal district for which there is a Municipal Commissioner the powers or duties or executive functions under this Act or under any rule or bylaw made hereunder conferred or imposed upon or vested in the Municipal Commissioner shall not be delegated save as provided in section 186-M.]

(4) Validity of proceedings.

Acts and proceedings of Municipality and committees not vitiated by disqualifications, etc., of members thereof. 38. (1) No disqualification of, or defect in the election or appointment of, any person acting as councillor, or as the president or presiding authority of a general meeting or as chairman of a committee appointed under this Act, shall be deemed to vitiate any act or proceeding of the Municipality or of any such committee, as the case may be, in which such person has taken part, whenever the majority of persons, parties to such act or proceeding, were entitled to act.

Proceedings of meetings to be good and valid, until the contrary is proved. (2) Until the contrary is proved, every meeting of the Municipality, or of a committee appointed under this Act, in respect of the proceedings whereof a minute has been made and signed in accordance with this Act, shall be deemed to have been duly convened and held, and all the members of the meeting shall be deemed to have been duly qualified; and where the proceedings are the proceedings of a committee, such committee shall be deemed to have been duly constituted and to have had the power to deal with the matters referred to in the minute.

Vacancy not to affect Municipality's proceedings. (3) During any vacancy in a Municipality or committee the continuing councillors or members may act as if no vacancy had occurred.

(5) Joint transactions with other bodies.

Joint committees of two or more Municipalities or other local bodies. 39. A Municipality may from time to time—
(a) join with any other Municipality or with any local board, cantonment authority, sanitary board, sanitary committee or committee appointed for an area notified under Chapter XIV, or with more than one such Municipality, board, authority or committee—

(i) in appointing out of their respective bodies a joint committee for any purpose in which they are jointly interested, and in appointing a chairman of such committee; and

(ii) in delegating to any such committee power to frame terms binding on each such body as to the construction and future maintenance of any joint work, and any power which might be exercised by either or any of such bodies; and
 (iii) in framing and modifying rules for regulating the proceedings of any such committee relating to the purpose for which the committee is appointed; and

(b) enter, subject to the sanction of the ¹[Provincial Government], into an agreement with a Municipality, cantonment authority, ²[local board] or committee appointed for an area notified as aforesaid ³[or with a combination of any such bodies], regarding the levy of octroi duty whereby the octroi duties respectively leviable by the bodies so contracting may be levied together instead of separately within the limits of the area ⁴* * * * * subject to the control of the said bodies.

⁵[Explanation.—For the purpose of this clause, octroi duty includes a terminal tax.]

⁶[Where a municipality has requested the concurrence of any other local authority under the provisions of the preceding paragraph in respect of any matter and such other local authority has refused to concur, the Commissioner may pass such orders as he may deem fit, requiring the concurrence of such other local authority, not being a cantonment authority, in the matter aforesaid; and such other local authority shall comply with such orders.]

If any difference of opinion arises between local bodies acting under this section, the decision thereupon of the ¹[Provincial Government], or of such officer as ⁷[it] appoints in this behalf, shall be final:

⁸[Provided that where one of the local bodies concerned is a cantonment authority, any such decision shall be subject to the concurrence of the Central Government.]

(6) Contracts.

40. (1) Every Municipality shall be competent, subject to the ⁹[restriction] contained in sub-section (2), to lease, sell or otherwise transfer any moveable or immovable property which may, for the purposes of this Act, have become vested in or been acquired by them, and so far as is not inconsistent with the provisions and purposes of this Act, to enter into and perform all such contracts as they may consider necessary or expedient in order to carry into effect the said provisions and purposes.

(2) In the case ¹⁰[of every lease or sale of land under sub-section (1) of section 90 and] of every lease of immovable property for a term exceeding seven years, and of every sale or other transfer, of any such property the previous sanction of the Commissioner is required.

Sanction by resolution at general meeting requisite to validity of certain contracts.

(3) In the case—

(a) of a lease for a period exceeding one year, or of a sale or other transfer, or contract for the purchase of any immovable property,

(b) of every contract which will involve expenditure, not covered by a budget grant,

(c) of every contract the performance of which cannot be completed within the official year current at the date of the contract, the sanction of the Municipality by a resolution passed at a general meeting is required.

Sanction of Municipality when requisite in other cases.

(4) In the case of a contract for the purchase of moveable property, or for the sale of any moveable property belonging to a Municipality, if the expenditure which the purchase would involve, or the value of the property to be sold as estimated in the municipal accounts, exceeds

(a) in the case of a City Municipality, Rs. 500,

(b) in the case of any other Municipality, Rs. 250,

the sanction of the Municipality is required.

Sanction by committees and individuals empowered.

(5) In the case of every contract not otherwise provided for in the preceding sub-sections of this section the sanction of the managing committee, or of such other committee, or of such individual as under the provisions of this Act or of the rules for the time being in force thereunder, is empowered on this behalf, is required.

Mode of executing contracts.

(6) Every contract entered into, by or on behalf of a Municipality other than a contract to which sub-section (5) applies, shall be in writing, and shall be signed by the president or vice-president and two other councillors, and shall be sealed with the common seal of the Municipality. Every contract to which sub-section (5) applies shall be executed by the chairman of the managing committee, or by the chairman of such other committee, or by such other individual, as is empowered in that behalf in such manner and form as, according to the law for the time being in force, would bind such chairman or individual if such contract were executed by him on his own behalf.

Invalidity of contracts unless requirements of this section are fulfilled.

(7) No contract shall be binding on a Municipality in any case referred to in this section, unless all such requirements as are specified in sub-section (2), (3), (4) or (5) in respect of such case are fulfilled, and unless it is executed in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (6) applicable thereto.

This section to be subject to the provisions of Chapter XIII A.

(8) Liabilities of councillors, officers and servants.

42. Every councillor shall be personally liable for the misapplication of any fund to which he shall have been a party, or which shall have happened through or been facilitated by, gross neglect of his duty as a councillor, and may be sued for recovery of the moneys so misapplied as if such moneys had been the property of the Crown; Councillors to be held responsible for misapplied funds.

Provided that no councillor shall be personally liable in respect of any contract or agreement made, or for any expense incurred, by, or on behalf of, the Municipality; the funds at the disposal of each Municipality shall be liable for, and be charged with, all costs in respect of any such contract or agreement and all such expenses. Municipal funds ordinarily liable for all costs and expenses incurred.

43. (1) Any person who has, directly or indirectly, by himself or his partner, any share or interest in any contract with, by or on behalf of a Municipality, or in any employment with, under, by or on behalf of a Municipality, other than as a municipal officer or servant, shall be disqualified for being an officer or servant of such Municipality. Officer or servant of any Municipality not to be interested in any contract with such Municipality.

(2) Any municipal officer or servant who shall acquire, directly or indirectly, by himself or his partner, any share or interest in any such contract or employment as aforesaid, shall cease to be a municipal officer or servant and his office shall become vacant. Effect of acquiring such interest.

(3) Nothing in this section shall apply to any such share or interest in any contract or employment with, under, by or on behalf of a Municipality as under clauses (ii) and (iv) of the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 15 it is permissible for a person to have without his being thereby disqualified for being a councillor. CHAPTER IV.

RULES AND BY-LAWS.

Municipalities to make rules ;

46. Every Municipality shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the constitution thereof, ²[and subject to the provisions of Chapter XIII A.] make and may from time to time alter or rescind rules, but not so as to render them inconsistent with this Act, regulating the conduct of business ;

(a) regulating the conduct of their business and the delegation of any of their powers or duties and, subject to the provisions of ³[sections 27 and 27-A], the appointment and constitution of committees ;

⁴(aa) prescribing the limitations and restrictions subject to which the Pilgrim Committee shall exercise the powers and perform the duties of the municipality in respect of the pilgrim fund ;

(b) determining

Bom.
XXXIV
of 1935.

Provided that—

(a) no tax imposed as aforesaid, other than a special sanitary cess or a water-rate, shall, without the express consent of ³[the Provincial Government], be leviable in respect of any building or part of any building, or of any vehicle, animal or other property, belonging to His Majesty and used solely for public purposes, and not used or intended to be used for purposes of profit, and no toll shall be leviable for the passage of troops or the conveyance of ⁴[Crown stores] or of any other ⁵[Crown property], or for the passage of Military or Police-officers on duty, or the passage or conveyance of any person or property in their custody;

(b) no special sanitary cess shall be leviable in respect of any private latrines, premises or compounds unless and until the Municipality have—

(i) made provision for the cleansing thereof by manual labour, or for conducting or receiving the sewage thereof into municipal sewers, and

(ii) issued either severally to the persons to be charged, or generally to the inhabitants of the district or part of the district to be charged, with such cess one month's notice of the intention of the Municipality to perform such cleansing and to levy such cess;

(c) the Municipality in lieu of imposing separately any two or more of the taxes described in clauses (i), (vii), (viii) and (ix) ⁶* * * may impose a consolidated tax assessed as a rate on buildings or lands, or both situate within the municipal district.

⁷[(2) Nothing in this section shall authorise the imposition of any tax which the Provincial Legislature has no power to impose in the Province under the Government of India Act, 1935 :

Provided that a Municipality which immediately before the commencement of Part III of the said Act was lawfully levying any such tax under this section as then in force, may continue to levy that tax until provision to the contrary is made by the Central Legislature.]

Procedure
of Municipality
preliminary to imposing tax.

60. Every Municipality before imposing a tax shall observe the following preliminary procedure :

(a) They shall, by resolution passed at a general meeting,

(i) select for the purpose one or other of the taxes specified in section 59 ;

(ii) prepare rules for the purposes of clause (i) of section 46 prescribing the tax selected ;

and shall by such resolution and in such rules specify,—

(iii) the class or classes of persons or of property, or of both, which the Municipality desire to make liable, and any exemptions which they desire to make ;

² Clause (xi) was substituted for the original clause, ibid.

³ The words " the Provincial Government " were substituted for the word " Government ", ibid.

⁴ The words " Crown stores " were substituted for the words " Government stores "; ibid.

⁵ The words " Crown property " were substituted for the words " Government property ", ibid.

⁶ The words, figure and brackets " of sub-section (I) " were repealed by s. 4 of the Bombay District Municipal (Amendment) Act, 1904 (Bom. 4 of 1904).

⁷ This sub-section and proviso were inserted by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council, .

(iv) the amount for which, or the rate at which, it is desired to make such classes liable ;

(v) all other matters, which the ¹[Provincial Government] may so require to be specified.

(b) When such resolution has been passed, the Municipality shall publish the form of rules so prepared with a notice in the form of Schedule A prefixed thereto.

(c) Any inhabitant of the municipal district objecting to the imposition of the said tax, or to the amount or rate proposed, or to the class of persons or property to be made liable thereto, or to any exemptions proposed, may within one month from the publication of the said notice send his objection in writing to the Municipality, and the Municipality shall take all such objections into consideration, or shall authorize a committee to consider the same and report thereon, and, unless they decide to abandon or to modify the proposed tax in accordance with such objections, shall submit the same with their opinion thereon, together with the notice and rules aforesaid, in the case of a City Municipality, to the ¹[Provincial Government] and in the case of any other Municipality, to the Commissioner.

61. The ¹[Provincial Government], or the Commissioner, as the case may be, may either refuse to sanction the rules submitted, or may return them to the Municipality for further consideration ; or if no objection, or no objection which is in ²[its or his] opinion sufficient, was made to the proposed tax within one month from the publication of the said notice, may sanction the said rules either—

(a) without modification, or

(b) subject

(i) to such modifications not involving an increase of the amount to be imposed, or

(ii) to such conditions as to the application within the municipal district to any purpose or purposes of this Act specified in such conditions, of the whole or any part of the proceeds of such tax, as ³[it or he] deems fit.

62. All rules sanctioned under section 61 with all modifications subject to which the sanction is given, shall be published by the Municipality in the district for which they are prescribed together with a notice reciting the sanction and the date and serial number thereof, and the tax as prescribed by the rules so published shall, from a date which shall be specified in such notice and which shall not be less than one month from the publication of such notice, be imposed accordingly, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied by the Municipality in accordance with all conditions, if any, subject to which under section 61 the sanction was given :

Provided that

(a) a tax, leviable by the year

(i) shall not come into force except on one of the following dates, viz., the first day of April—the first day of July—the first day of October—the first day of January ⁴[in any year], and

¹ The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Governor in Council" by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

² The words "its or his" were substituted for the word "his", ibid.

³ The words "it or he" were substituted for the word "he", ibid.

⁴ These words were substituted for the words "in the official year on which such notice is published" by s. 2 of the Bombay District Municipal Act (1901) Amendment Act, 1902 (Bom. 3 of 1902).

(ii) if it comes into force on any day other than the first of April, it shall be leviable by the quarter, till the first day of April then next ensuing;

(b) on or before the day on which a notice is issued under this section, the Municipality shall publish such further detailed rules as may be required, and as may have been approved by the ¹[Provincial Government] or by the Commissioner, as the case may be, under the first clause of the proviso to section 46, prescribing the mode of levying and recovering the tax therein specified, and the dates on which it or the instalments, if any, thereof, shall be payable;

(c) if the levy of a tax, or of a special portion of a tax, has been sanctioned, for a fixed period only, the levy shall cease at the conclusion of that period, except so far as regards unpaid arrears which may have become due during that period.

(2) Assessment of and liability to rates.

Preparation of an assessment-
list.

63. (1) When a rate on buildings or lands or both is imposed, the Municipality shall cause an assessment-list of all buildings, or lands, or buildings and lands in the municipal district to be prepared containing

- (a) the name of the street or division in which the property is situated;
- (b) the designation of the property, either by name or by number, sufficient for identification;
- (c) the names of the owner and occupier, if known;
- (d) the annual letting value or other valuation on which the property is assessed; and
- (e) the amount of the tax assessed thereon.

Power to inspect.

(2) For the purpose of making such assessment on property as aforesaid, the Municipality may from time to time appoint any person or persons, whether councillors or not, and whether remunerated or not; and any person or persons so appointed may for such purpose make an inspection of any such property:

²[Provided that in a municipal district for which there is a Municipal Commissioner such Municipal Commissioner may make such inspection.]

be furnished.

(3) On the requisition of the Municipality or of such person ³[or of the Municipal Commissioner, as the case may be,] the owner or occupier of any such building or land shall, within such reasonable period as shall be specified in the requisition, be bound to furnish a true return to the best of his knowledge or belief and subscribed with his signature—

- (a) as to the name and place of abode of the owner or occupier or of both;
- (b) as to the dimensions of such building or land and the annual letting value or other valuation thereof.

Publication
of notice of assessment-
list.

64. When the assessment-list has been completed the Municipality shall give public notice thereof, and of the place where the list or a copy thereof may be inspected; and every person claiming to be either owner or occupier of property included in the list, and any agent of such person, shall be at liberty to inspect that list and to make extracts therefrom without charge.

¹ The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Governor in Council" by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

² This proviso was added by s. 16 (1) of the Bombay District Municipal Amendment Act, 1914 (Bom. S of 1914).

³ These words were inserted by s. 16 (2), ibid.

65. (1) The Municipality shall at the time of the publication of such assessment- Public notice list give public notice of a time, not less than one month thereafter, when they will of time fixed proceed to revise the valuation and assessment : and in all cases in which any for revising property is for the first time assessed or the assessment is increased, they shall also list. assessment- give notice thereof to the owner or occupier of the property, if known.

(2) All objections to the valuation and assessment shall be made to the Muni- Objections pality, before the time fixed in the notice, by application in writing, stating the how to be grounds on which the valuation and assessment are disputed, and all applications so made. made shall be registered in a book to be kept by the Municipality for the purpose.

(3) ¹[In a municipal district for which there is a Municipal Commissioner, such Hearing of Municipal Commissioner, and elsewhere] the managing committee, or any objections. committee or committees to which the Municipality delegate the powers and functions of the managing committee in this behalf, or any ²[servant of the Crown] to whom, with the permission of the Commissioner, the Municipality delegate and they are hereby empowered so to delegate, the powers and functions of the managing committee in this behalf, shall, after allowing the applicant an opportunity of being heard in person or by agent,

(a) investigate and dispose of the objections,

(b) cause the result thereof to be noted in the book kept under sub-section (2), and

(c) cause any amendment necessary in accordance with such result to be made in the assessment-list.

(4) When all objections made under this section have been disposed of, and all amendments required by sub-section (3) have been made in the assessment- Authentication list, the said list shall be authenticated ³[in a municipal district for which there is a Municipal Commissioner by the signature of the Municipal Commissioner, and elsewhere] by the signatures of the chairman and at least one other member of the managing committee, or if the Municipality have delegated the powers and functions of the managing committee in this behalf to any other committee or to ⁴[a servant of the Crown] by the signatures of not less than two members of such committee or of the officer aforesaid, and the person or persons so authenticating the list shall certify that no valid objection has been made to the valuation and assessment contained in the list except in the cases in which amendments have been made therein.

(5) The list so authenticated shall be deposited in the municipal office, and shall there be open for inspection during office hours to all owners and occupiers Custody and of property specified therein, or to the agents of such persons, and a notice that inspection of it is so open shall be forthwith published. list.

(6) Subject—

(a) to such alterations as may thereafter be made therein, under the provisions of the next following section, and

(b) to the result of any appeal made under section 86, Authenticated list how far conclusive. the entries in the list so authenticated and deposited shall be accepted as conclusive evidence,

(i) for the purposes of all municipal taxes, of the annual letting value or other valuation of all buildings and lands to which such entries respectively refer, and

¹ These words were inserted by s. 17 (1) of the Bombay District Municipal Amendment Act, 1914 (Bom. S of 1914).

² The words "servant of the Crown" were substituted for the words "officer of Government" by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

³ These words were inserted by s. 17 (2) of the Bombay District Municipal Amendment Act, 1914 (Bom. S of 1914).

⁴ These words were substituted for the words "an officer of Government" by the Adoption of Indian Laws Order in Council.

(ii) for the purposes of any tax imposed on buildings or lands, of the amount of each such tax leviable thereon throughout the official year to which such list relates.

Amendment
of assessment list.

66. (1) The Municipality may at any time alter the said list by inserting the name of any person whose name ought to have been inserted, or by inserting any property which ought to have been inserted, or by altering the valuation of or assessment on any property which has been erroneously valued or assessed through fraud, accident or mistake, after giving notice to any person interested in the alteration, of a time, not less than one month from the date of service of such notice, at which the alteration is to be made.

Objections
with.

(2) Every objection made by any persons interested in any such alteration, before the time fixed in the notice, and in the manner provided by sub-section (2) of the last preceding section, shall be dealt with in all respects as if it were an application under the said section.

Effect of
amendment.

(3) Every alteration made under this section shall, subject to the result of an appeal under section 86, have the same effect as if it had been made on the earliest day in the current official year in which the circumstances justifying the alteration existed.

New assessment-list
need not be prepared every year.

67. (1) It shall not be necessary to prepare a new assessment-list every year. Subject to the condition that every part of the assessment-list shall be completely revised not less than once in every four years, the Municipality may adopt the valuation and assessment contained in the list for any year, with such alterations as may be deemed necessary, for the year immediately following.

(2) But the provisions of sections 64, 65 and 66 shall be applicable every year as if a new assessment-list had been completed at the commencement of the official year.

Tax from whom primarily leviable.

68. Every tax imposed in the form of a rate on buildings or lands or on both, shall be leviable primarily from the actual occupier of the property upon which the said taxes are assessed, if he is the owner of the buildings or land or holds them on a building or other lease from the ¹[Crown] or from the Municipality, or on a building lease from any person. Otherwise the said tax shall be primarily leviable as follows, namely :—

- (a) if the property is let, from the lessor ;
- (b) if the property is sublet, from the superior lessor ;
- (c) if the property is unlet, from the person in whom the right to let the same vests :

Recovery
from occupiers.

Provided that on failure to recover any sum due on account of such tax from the person primarily liable, such portion of the sum may be recovered from the occupier of any part of the buildings or lands in respect of which it is due as bears to the whole amount due the same ratio which the rent annually payable by such occupier bears to the aggregate amount of rent so payable in respect of the whole of the said buildings or lands, or to the aggregate amount of the letting value thereof, if any, stated in the authenticated assessment-list, whichever of those two amounts is the greater :

¹ The word "Crown" was substituted for the words "Secretary of State for India in Council" by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

Provided further that for any sum paid by, or recovered from, any occupier who is not primarily liable under this section, he shall be entitled to credit in account with the person primarily liable for the payment of that sum. Remedy of occupier in such case.

69. (1) When any building or land which is assessed to a rate payable by the year, or in respect of which a special sanitary cess is payable by the year or by instalments, has remained vacant and unproductive of rent throughout the year, or throughout the period in respect of which any such instalment is payable, the Municipality shall remit or refund not less than two-thirds of the amount of the rate, or of the cess or instalment of the cess, as the case may be: Remission of tax in case of vacancies when obligatory.

Provided that no such remission shall be granted unless notice in writing of the fact of the building or land being vacant and unproductive of rent has been given to the Municipality, and that no remission or refund shall take effect for any period previous to the day of the delivery of such notice.

(2) When any such building or land as aforesaid,

(a) has been vacant and unproductive of rent for any period of not less than sixty consecutive days, or When discretion.

(b) consists of separate tenements one or more of which has or have been vacant and unproductive of rent for any such period as aforesaid, or

(c) is wholly or in great part demolished or destroyed by fire or otherwise deprived of value, the Municipality may remit or refund such portion, if any, of the rate or instalment as they may think equitable.

(3) The burden of proving the facts entitling any person to claim relief under this section shall be upon him. Burden of proof on claimant.

(4) For the purposes of this section ¹[(a) a dwelling-house within the limits of a municipality notified by ²[the Provincial Government] as a hill-station municipality shall, if otherwise unoccupied, be deemed to be vacant notwithstanding the fact that it contains the furniture habitually used in it; and (b)] a building or land shall be deemed to be productive of rent if let to a tenant who has a continuing right of occupation thereof, whether it is actually occupied by such tenant or not. Explanatory clause.

(3) Power to charge fees.

70. (1) When any licence is granted by the Municipality under this Act, or when permission is given by them for making any temporary erection or for putting up any projection, or for the temporary occupation of any public street or other land vested in the Municipality, the Municipality may charge a fee for such licence or permission. Municipality may charge fees for certain licences.

(2) The Municipality may also charge such fees as may be fixed by by-laws under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 48 for the use of any such places mentioned in that sub-section as belong to the Municipality. Market and other fees.

¹ These words, letters and brackets were inserted by Bom. 12 of 1931, s. 2 (vi).

² The words "the Provincial Government" were substituted for the word "Government" by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

(4) Special provisions relating to certain taxes.

Fixed charges and agreements for payment in lieu of taxes for water supplied.

71. (1) The Municipality may, instead of imposing a water-rate or, in individual cases, of levying a rate imposed in respect of the supply of water belonging to the Municipality to, or for use in connection with, any private lands or buildings,

(a) fix at rates not exceeding such as shall be specified in the rules in force under section 46, charges for such supply according to the quantity used, as ascertained by measurement,

(b) arrange with any person, on his application, to supply on payment, periodical or otherwise, water belonging to the Municipality in such quantities or for such purposes, whether domestic, ornamental, or irrigational or for trade, manufacture or otherwise, on such terms and subject to such conditions as they shall fix by agreement with such person :

Provided that—

(a) the meters, connection-pipes and all other works necessary for and incidental to such supplies, and all future repairs, extensions and alterations of such works shall be under the control of the Municipality, and the expense thereof shall, so far as is not inconsistent with the rules or by-laws of the Municipality, be defrayed by the persons liable in respect of such supplies, and

(b) all such supplies of water shall be, and shall be deemed to have been granted, subject to all such conditions as to the limit or stoppage thereof, and as to the prevention of waste or misuse, as are prescribed in the by-laws for the time being in force under section 48.

Power to fix a special rate in lieu of special sanitary cess.

(2) When the Municipality have made provision for the cleansing of any factory, hotel, club or group of buildings or lands used for any one purpose and under one management, they may, instead of levying in respect thereof any special sanitary cess imposed under this Chapter, fix a special rate and the dates and other conditions for periodical payments thereof, which shall be determined either,

(i) in accordance with the rules for the time being in force under section 46, or

(ii) by written agreement with the person who would have been otherwise liable for the cess, provided that, in fixing the amount, proper regard be had to the probable cost to the Municipality of the service to be rendered.

Power to compound tax on vehicles or animals.

(3) When the Municipality have imposed a tax on vehicles or animals kept for use within the municipal district they may compound with the keeper of any livery-stable or of horses or vehicles kept for sale and hire, for the payment of a lump sum, for any period not exceeding one year at a time, in lieu of any amount which such keeper would otherwise have been liable to pay on account of the tax imposed as aforesaid.

Recovery of sums claimed under this section.

(4) Every sum claimed by the Municipality as due under sub-section (1) as a charge fixed by agreement or otherwise on account of water-supply, or as expenses to be defrayed such as are referred to in that sub-section, or as a special rate under sub-section (2) or as a lump sum payable under sub-section (3), shall for the purposes of Chapter VIII be deemed to be, and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under the said Chapter :

Provided that nothing in this section shall affect the right or power of the Municipality to contract with any person to supply for use beyond the limits of the municipal district, at such rates and on such conditions as the Municipality may think fit, any quantity of water belonging to the Municipality but not required for the purposes of this Act.

72. If any tax imposed under this Act is a tax on pilgrims resorting periodically to a shrine within the limits of a municipal district, the Commissioner may require the Municipality of such district to assign and pay to the district local board, or to the taluka local board having authority in the taluka in which such municipal district is situate, or partly to the said district local board and partly to the said taluka local board, such portion of the total collections on account of such tax as he shall deem fit; and the portion so assigned shall be expended by the said board or boards, within the areas respectively under their authority, on works conducive to the health, convenience and safety of the said pilgrims. Taxes on pilgrims may be assigned in part to local boards.

73. If it shall at any time appear to the ¹[Provincial Government], on complaint made or otherwise, that any tax, leviable by a Municipality, is unfair in its incidence, or that the levy thereof, or of any part thereof, is obnoxious to the interest of the general public, ²[it] may require the said Municipality, within such period as ³[it] shall fix in this behalf, to take measures for removing any objection which appears to ³[it] to exist to the said tax, and if, within the period so fixed, such requirement shall not be carried into effect to the satisfaction of the ⁴[Provincial Government], ²[it] may, by notification in the ⁴[Official Gazette], suspend the levy of such tax, or of such part thereof, until such time as the objection thereto shall be removed. Power of Provincial Government to suspend levy of objectionable taxes.

The ¹[Provincial Government] may at any time, by a like notification, rescind any such suspension.

74. Whenever it appears to the ¹[Provincial Government] that the balance of the municipal fund of any Municipality is insufficient for meeting the expenditure incurred under section 175 or for the performance of any duties in respect of which they shall have been declared under section 178 to have committed default, the ¹[Provincial Government] may by notification require the Municipality to impose, within the municipal district, any such tax specified in the notification as may be imposed under section 59 if no such tax is at the time imposed therein, or to enhance any existing tax in such manner or to such extent as the ¹[Provincial Government] considers fit, and the Municipality shall forthwith proceed to impose or enhance in accordance with the requisition such tax under the provisions of this Chapter, as if a resolution of the Municipality had been passed for the purpose under section 60 : Power of Provincial Government to require municipalities to impose taxes.

Provided that—

(a) the ¹[Provincial Government] shall take into consideration any objection which the Municipality or any inhabitant of the municipal district may make against the imposition or enhancement of such tax,

(b) it shall not be lawful for the Municipality to abandon or modify or to abolish such tax when imposed, and

⁴ The words "Official Gazette" were substituted for the words "Bombay Government Gazette", ibid.

(c) the ¹[Provincial Government] may at any time cancel or modify any requisition made by ²[it] under this ³[section], and the levy of the tax or the enhancement, except as to arrears theretofore accrued due, shall thereupon cease or be modified accordingly.

(5) Octroi and Tolls.

Octroi by-laws to be submitted with proposal for imposition of octroi.

75. Every Municipality, when submitting for sanction a proposal for the imposition of octroi, shall submit therewith for sanction a draft of by-laws for the purposes of clause (j) of section 48, after observing the requirements of sub-sections (2) and (3) of that section.

Power to examine articles liable to octroi.

476. (1) Every person bringing into, or receiving from beyond, the octroi limits of a municipal district any article on which octroi is payable shall, when required by an officer authorized in this behalf by the Municipality, and so far as may be necessary for ascertaining the amount of tax chargeable,

(a) permit that officer to inspect, examine and weigh, and otherwise deal with the article; and

(b) communicate to that officer any information and exhibit to him any bill, invoice or document of a like nature, which he may possess relating to the article.

Power to search where octroi is leviable.

(2) If any person bringing into, or receiving from beyond, the octroi limits of a municipal district in which octroi is leviable any conveyance or package shall refuse, on the demand of an officer authorized by the municipality in this behalf, to permit the officer to inspect the contents of the conveyance or package for the purpose of ascertaining whether it contains any articles in respect of which octroi is payable, the officer may cause the conveyance or package to be taken without unnecessary delay before a Magistrate or such officer of the Municipality as the ¹[Provincial Government] appoints in this behalf by name or office, who shall cause the inspection to be made in his presence.

Presentation of bills for octroi.

77. (1) Every officer demanding octroi by the authority of the Municipality shall tender to every person introducing or receiving any article on which the tax is claimed, a bill specifying the article taxable, the amount claimed, and the rate at which the tax is calculated.

Penalty for evasion of octroi.

(2) If goods passing into a municipal district are liable to the payment of octroi, then every person who, with the intention to defraud the Municipality, causes or abets the introduction of, or himself introduces or attempts to introduce within the octroi limits of the said district, any such goods upon which payment of the octroi due on such introduction has neither been made nor tendered, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to ten times the value of such octroi or to fifty rupees, whichever may be greater.

(4) If no such tender is made, the property may be sold, and the proceeds of such sale shall be applied in payment of such octroi or toll and the expenses incidental to the seizure, detention and sale.

Sale.

(5) If surplus, if any, of the sale-proceeds shall be credited to the municipal fund, and may, on application made to the Municipality in writing within six months next after the sale, be paid to the person in whose possession the property was when seized, and, if no such application is made, shall be the property of the Municipality.

Surplus how

80. The Municipality, if they think fit, instead of requiring payment of octroi, due from any mercantile firm or public body, to be made at the time when the articles in respect of which it is leviable are introduced within the octroi limits of the municipal district, may at any time direct that an account-current shall be kept on behalf of the Municipality of the octroi so due from any such firm or body as the Municipality specify in this behalf. Every such account shall be settled at intervals not exceeding one month, and such firm or public body shall make such deposit or furnish such security as the Municipality or any committee or officer authorized by them in this behalf shall consider sufficient to cover the amount which may at any time be due from such firm or body in respect of such dues. Every amount so due at the expiry of any such interval shall, for the purposes of Chapter VIII, be deemed to be, and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under the said Chapter.

CHAPTER IX.

MUNICIPAL POWERS AND OFFENCES.

(1) Powers in respect of streets.

90. (1) It shall be lawful for the Municipality to lay out and make new public streets, and to construct tunnels and other works subsidiary to the same, and to widen, open, enlarge or otherwise improve any such streets, and to turn, divert, discontinue or stop up any such streets, and, subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 40 [to lease or sell] any such land, theretofore used or acquired by the Municipality for the purposes of such streets as may not be required for any public street or for any other purposes of this Act. Power regarding streets, etc.

(2) In laying out or making or in turning, diverting, widening, opening enlarging, or otherwise improving any public street, in addition to the land required for the carriage-way and footways and drains thereof, the Municipality may purchase the land necessary for the houses and buildings to form the said street, and, subject to the provision contained in sub-section (2) of section 40, may sell and dispose of the same in perpetuity or on lease for a term of years, with such stipulations as to the class and description of houses or buildings to be erected thereon as they may think fit.

(3) When the Municipality consider that in any street, not being a public street, or in any part of such street, within the municipal district, it is necessary for the public health, convenience or safety that any work should be done for the levelling, paving, metalling, flagging, channeling, draining, lighting or cleaning thereof, the Municipality may by written notice require the respective owners of the lands or buildings fronting, adjoining or abutting upon such street or part thereof, to carry out such work in a manner and within a time to be specified in such notice. Power to require repair of streets.

(4) After such work has been carried out by such owners or, as provided in section 156, by the Municipality at the expense of such owners, the street or part thereof in which such work has been done may, and on the joint requisition of a majority and to declare such streets public.

of the said owners shall, be declared by a public notice, put up therein by the Municipality, to be a public street.

Power to declare any street a public street, subject to objections by the owners.

(5) A Municipality may, at any time, by notice fixed up in any street or part of a street not maintainable by the Municipality, give intimation of their intention to declare the same a public street, and unless within one month next after such notice has been so put up, the owner or the majority of several owners of such street or such part of a street lodges or lodge objections thereto at the municipal office, the Municipality may by notice in writing put up in such street, or such part, declare the same to be a public street.

New streets.

91. (1) Every person intending to lay out or make any new street, shall give notice in writing thereof to the Municipality, and shall furnish plans and sections showing the intended level, means of drainage, direction and width of such street, if required by the Municipality to do so, and the level, means of drainage, direction and width of every such street shall be fixed or approved by the Municipality.

Power of Municipality to pass orders.

(2) Before passing orders under sub-section (1), the Municipality may either issue,

(a) a provisional order directing that for a period therein specified, which shall not be longer than one month from the date of such order, the intended work shall not be proceeded with, or

(b) a demand for further particulars.

Right to proceed in certain cases.

(3) If,

(a) within one month from the receipt of the notice given under sub-section (1) the Municipality have neither—

(i) passed orders and served notice thereof either fixing or disapproving the proposals submitted under sub-section (1) with regard to level, means of drainage, direction and width of the street, nor.

(ii) under sub-section (2), issued any provisional order or demand for further particulars, or if

(b) the Municipality, having issued such demand for, and having received, in accordance with the demand and with by-laws in force in this behalf, such further particulars, have issued no further orders within one month from the receipt of such particulars, then the street may be laid out and made, in such manner as may have been specified in the notice, and as is not inconsistent with any provision of this Act or of any by-laws for the time being in force thereunder.

Penalty.

(4) Whoever lays out, makes or builds upon any such street, either without giving the notice required by sub-section (1), or, except in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3) without awaiting, or otherwise than in accordance with, the instructions issued by the Municipality, or in any manner contrary to the provisions of this Act or of any by-law in force thereunder shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred and fifty rupees, and the Municipality may cause any

street so laid out or made to be altered, and any building erected in such street contrary to their directions to be altered or removed, and the expense thereby incurred shall be paid to them by the offender, and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII

¹91A. (1) It shall be the duty of every ²[city municipality and of such other municipality as may be notified by ³[the Provincial Government] in this behalf] ^{The regular line of a public street.} to prescribe a line on each side of every public street within the municipal district and the Municipality may from time to time prescribe a fresh line in substitution for any line so prescribed, or for any part thereof :

Provided that—

(a) at least one month previous to prescribing such line or such fresh line, as the case may be, the Municipality shall give public notice of the proposal and they shall put up special notice thereof in the street or part of the street for which such line or such fresh line is proposed to be prescribed, and

(b) the Municipality shall consider any written objection or suggestion in regard to such proposal delivered at the office of the Municipality within such time as they may specify in such public or special notice.

(2) The line for the time being so prescribed shall be called 'the regular line of the public street'.

⁴[(3) (a) Except] under the provisions of section 113, no person shall construct or reconstruct any portion of any building within the regular line of the public street without the permission of the Municipality under section 96.

(b) Where the Municipality refuses permission to construct or reconstruct any building in any area within the regular line of the public street, such area shall be added to the street and shall thenceforth be deemed part of the public street and shall be vested in the Municipality.

(c) Compensation, the amount of which shall in case of dispute be ascertained and determined in the manner provided in section 160, shall be paid by the Municipality to the owner of any land added to a street under clause (b) for the value of the said land, and to the owner of any building for any loss, damage or expense incurred by such owner in consequence of any action taken by the Municipality under the said clause :

Provided that no such compensation shall be payable in cases to which section 119 applies.]

Explanation.—The expression “to erect a building” throughout this Chapter includes—

(a) any material alteration, enlargement or reconstruction of any building ⁴[or of any wall, verandah, fixed platform, plinth, doorstep or the like, whether constituting part of a building or not],

(b) the conversion into a place for human habitation of any building not originally constructed for human habitation,

(c) the conversion into more than one place for human habitation of a building originally constructed as one such place,

(d) the conversion of two or more places of human habitation into a greater number of such places,

(e) such alterations of the internal arrangements of a building as affect its drainage, ventilation or other sanitary arrangements, or its security, or stability, and

(f) the addition of any rooms, buildings or other structures to any building, and a building so altered, enlarged, reconstructed, converted, or added to, is, throughout this Chapter, included under the expression “a new building”.

97. It shall not be lawful for any person to erect any hut or shed or range or block of huts or sheds, or to add any hut or shed to any range or block of huts or sheds already existing when this Act comes into operation, without giving previous notice to the Municipality; and the Municipality may require such huts or sheds to be built so that they may stand in regular lines, with a free passage or way in front of and between every two lines of such width as the Municipality think proper for ventilation and to facilitate scavenging, and at such a level as will admit of sufficient drainage, and may require such huts to be provided with such number of privies and such means of drainage as to them may seem necessary. If any hut or shed or range or block be built without giving such notice to the Municipality, or otherwise than as required by the Municipality, the Municipality may give written notice to the owner or builder thereof, or to the owner or occupier of the land on which the same is erected, or is being erected, requiring him within such reasonable time as shall be specified in the notice to take down and remove the same, or to make such alterations therein or additions thereto as having regard to sanitary considerations the Municipality may think fit.

¹ The words “addition or reconstruction” were substituted for the words “or addition” by Bom. 26 of 1930, s. 8 (f) (iv).

² Clause (b) was substituted for the original clause by ibid., s. 8 (f) (v).

³ The words “they may” were repealed by s. 7 of the Bombay District Municipal (Amendment) Act, 1904 (Bom. 4 of 1904).

Improvement of
huts.

98. (1) Whenever the Municipality are of opinion that any huts or sheds, whether used as dwellings or stables or for any other purposes, and whether existing at the time when this Act comes into operation or subsequently erected, are by reason—

(a) of insufficient ventilation or of the manner in which such huts or sheds are crowded together, or

(b) of the want of a plinth or of a sufficient plinth or of sufficient drainage, or

(c) of the impracticability of scavenging, attended with risk of disease to the inhabitants or the neighbourhood, they shall cause a notice to be affixed to some conspicuous part of each such hut or shed, requiring the owner or occupier thereof, or the owner of the land on which such hut or shed is built, within such reasonable time as may be fixed by the Municipality for that purpose, to take down and remove such hut or shed, or to execute such operations as the Municipality may deem necessary for the avoidance of such risk.

(2) In case any such owner or occupier shall refuse or neglect to take down and remove such huts or sheds, or to execute such operations within the time appointed, the Municipality may cause the said huts or sheds to be taken down, or such operations to be performed in respect of such huts or sheds as they may deem necessary to prevent such risk.

(3) If such huts or sheds be pulled down by the Municipality, the Municipality shall cause the materials of each hut or shed to be sold separately, if such sale can be effected, and the proceeds, after deducting all expenses, shall be paid to the owner of the hut or shed, or if the owner be unknown or the title disputed, shall be held in deposit by the Municipality until the person interested therein shall obtain the order of a competent Court for the payment of the same :

Provided always that in case any huts or sheds, existing at the time when the land on which they are situated first became part of a municipal district, should be pulled down under this section by order of the Municipality, or in pursuance of their notice, compensation shall further be made to the owner or owners thereof, and the amount thereof, in case of dispute, shall be ascertained and determined in the manner provided in section 160.

(3) Powers connected with drainage, etc.

Municipal
control over drains, etc.

99. (1) All sewers, drains, privies, water-closets, house-gullies and cesspools within the municipal district shall be under the survey and control of the Municipality.

(2) All covered sewers and drains, and all cesspools, whether public or private, shall be provided by the Municipality or other persons to whom they severally belong, with proper traps, or other coverings or means of ventilation and the Municipality may by written notice call upon the owner of any such covered sewers, drains or cesspools to make provision accordingly.

100. (1) In order to carry out any drainage scheme it shall be lawful for a Municipality to carry any drain, sewer, conduit, tunnel, culvert pipe or water-course through, across or under any street, or any place laid out as or intended for a street, or under any cellar or vault which may be under any street, and after giving reasonable notice in writing to the owner or occupier, into, through or under any land whatsoever within the municipal district. Powers for making drains.

(2) The Municipality, or any officer appointed by them for such purpose, may enter upon and construct any new drain in the place of an existing drain in any land wherein any drain vested in the Municipality has been already constructed, or may repair or alter any drain vested in the Municipality.

(3) In the exercise of any power under this section no unnecessary damage shall be done, and compensation, which shall, in case of dispute, be ascertained and determined in the manner provided in section 160, shall be paid by the Municipality to any person who sustains damage by the exercise of such power.

101. (1) If any building or land be at any time undrained, or not drained to the satisfaction of the Municipality, the Municipality may by written notice call upon the owner to construct or lay from such building or land a drain or pipe of such size and materials, at such level, and with such fall as they think necessary for the drainage of such building or land into— Sufficient drainage of houses.

(a) some drain or sewer, if there be a suitable drain or sewer within fifty feet of any part of such building or land, or

(b) a covered cesspool to be provided by such owner.

(2) It shall not be lawful newly to erect any building or to re-build any building, or to occupy any building newly erected or re-built, unless and until— New buildings not to be erected without drains.

(a) a drain be constructed of such size, materials and description, at such level, and with such fall, as shall appear to the Municipality to be necessary for the effectual drainage of such building ;

(b) there have been provided for and set up in such building and in the land appurtenant thereto, all such appliances and fittings as may appear to the Municipality to be necessary for the purposes of gathering and receiving the drainage, from, and conveying the same off, the said building and the said land and of effectually flushing the drain of the said building and every fixture connected therewith.

(3) The drain to be constructed as aforesaid shall empty into a municipal drain, or into some place legally set apart for the discharge of drainage situated at a distance not exceeding fifty feet from such building ; but if there is no such drain or place within that distance, then such drain shall empty into such cesspool as the Municipality direct.

102. The owner or occupier of any building or land within the municipal district shall be entitled to cause his drains to empty into the sewers of the Municipality, provided that he first obtains the written permission of the Municipality, and that he complies with such conditions as the Municipality prescribe as to the mode in which and the superintendence under which the communications are to be made between drains not vested in the Municipality and drains which are so vested. Powers of owners and occupiers of buildings or lands to drain into municipal drains.

How right to carry drain through land or into drain belonging to other persons may be obtained;

103. (1) If the owner or occupier of any building or land desires to connect the same with any municipal drain, by means of a drain, to be constructed through land, or to be connected with a drain, belonging to or occupied by or in the use of some other person, he may make a written application in that behalf to the Municipality.

Such right how and on what conditions to be authorized by Municipality.

(2) The Municipality thereupon, after giving to such other person a reasonable opportunity of stating any objection to such application, may, if no objection is raised or if any objection which is raised is in their opinion insufficient, by an order in writing authorize the applicant to carry his drain into, through, or under the said land, or into the said drain, as the case may be, in such manner and on such conditions as to the payment of rent or compensation, and as to the respective responsibilities of the parties for maintaining, repairing, flushing, cleaning and emptying the said drains as may appear to them to be adequate and equitable.

Written order of municipal authority for execution of necessary work.

(3) Every such order shall be a complete authority to the person in whose favour it is made, or to any agent or other person employed by him for this purpose, after giving or tendering to the owner or occupier of the said land or drain the compensation or rent, if any, specified in the said order, and otherwise fulfilling as far as possible the conditions of the said order, and after giving to the said owner or occupier reasonable notice in writing, to enter upon the land specified in the said order with assistants and workmen at any time between sunrise and sunset and, subject to all provisions of this Act, to do all such work as may be necessary—

(a) for the construction or connection of the drain, as may be authorized by the said order,

(b) for renewing, repairing or altering the same, as may be necessary from time to time, or

(c) for discharging any responsibility attaching to him under the terms of the order as to maintaining, repairing, flushing, cleaning or emptying the said drain or any part thereof.

Work how to be carried out.

104. In executing any work under section 103, as little damage as possible shall be done, and the owner or occupier of the buildings or lands for the benefit of which the work is done, shall—

(a) cause the work to be executed with the least practicable delay;

(b) fill in, reinstate and make good at his own cost and with the least practicable delay the ground or any portion of any building or other construction opened, broken up or removed for the purpose of executing the said work; and

(c) pay compensation to any person who sustains damage by the execution of the said work.

Rights of owner of land through which drain is carried in regard to subsequent building thereon.

105. If the owner of any land into, through or under which a drain has been carried under section 103 whilst such land was unbuilt upon, shall at any subsequent time desire to erect a building thereon, the Municipality shall, if they sanction the erection of such building, by written notice require the owner or occupier of the buildings or land for the benefit of which such drain was constructed to close, remove or divert the same, and to fill in, reinstate and make good the land in such manner as they may deem to be necessary; in order to admit of the construction or safe enjoyment of the proposed building.

Provision of privies, etc.

106. (1) In case the Municipality shall be of opinion that any privy or cesspool, or additional privies, or cesspools, should be provided in or on any building or land or, in any municipal district in which, with the approval of the sanitary board, a water-closet system has been introduced, that water-closets should be substituted for the existing privies in or on any building or land, or that additional water-closets should be provided therein or thereon, the Municipality may by written notice call upon the owner of such building or land to provide such privies, cesspools or water-closets as the Municipality may deem proper.

(2) The Municipality may by written notice require any person or persons employing workmen or labourers exceeding twenty in number, or owning or managing any market, school or theatre or other place of public resort, to provide such latrines and urinals as the Municipality may direct, and to cause the same to be kept in proper order, and to be daily cleaned.

(3) The Municipality may by written notice require the owner or occupier of any land upon which there is a privy, to have such privy shut out, by a sufficient roof and a wall or fence, from the view of persons passing by or resident in the neighbourhood, or to alter as they may direct any privy door or trap door which opens on to any street, and which they deem to be a nuisance.

107. (1) All sewers, drains, privies, water-closets, house-gullies and cesspools within municipal district shall, unless constructed at the cost of the Municipality, be altered, repaired, and kept in proper order at the cost and charges of the owners of the land and buildings to which the same belong, or for the use of which they are constructed or continued, and the Municipality may by written notice require such owner to alter, repair, and put the same in good order in such manner as they think fit.

Cost of altering, repairing and keeping in proper order privies, etc.

(2) The Municipality may by written notice ¹[require the owner to] demolish or close any privy or cesspool, whether constructed before or after the coming in operation of this Act, which in the opinion of the Municipality is a nuisance, or is so constructed as to be inaccessible for the purpose of scavenging or incapable of being properly cleaned or kept in good order.

108. When any building or land within the municipal district has a drain communicating with any cesspool or sewer, the Municipality, if they consider that such drain, though it may be sufficient for the drainage of such building or land, and though it may be otherwise unobjectionable is not adapted to the general sewerage of the district, may close such drain, and such cesspool or sewer, whether it is or is not on land vested in the Municipality, on providing a drain or drains equally effectual for the drainage of such building or land, and the Municipality may do any work necessary for the purpose.

Power to close existing private drains.

109. The Municipality may by written notice require that any such sewer drain, privy, water-closet, house-gully or cesspool on any land within municipal limits constructed, rebuilt or unstopped—

Power in respect of sewers, etc., unauthorisedly constructed, rebuilt or unstopped.

(a) after such land became part of a municipal district, and

(b) either without the consent or contrary to the orders, directions or general regulations or by-laws of the Municipality, or contrary to the provisions of any enactment in force at the time when it was so constructed, rebuilt or unstopped, shall be demolished, amended or altered, as they may deem fit, by the person by whom it was so constructed, rebuilt or unstopped and every person so constructing, rebuilding or unstopping any such sewer, drain, privy, water-closet, house-gully or cesspool, whether he does or does not receive such notice or does or does not comply therewith shall, in addition to any penalty to which he may be liable on account of such non-compliance, be punished with fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees.

Encroachments on municipal drains.

110. (1) Whoever, without the written consent of the Municipality first obtained, makes or causes to be made any drain into or out from any of the sewers or drains vested in the Municipality, shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees, and the Municipality may by written notice require such person to demolish, alter, remake, or otherwise deal with such drain as they may think fit.

(2) No building shall be newly erected or rebuilt over any sewer, drain, culvert or gutter vested in the Municipality, without the written consent of the Municipality, and the Municipality may by written notice require the person who may have erected or rebuilt such building to pull down or otherwise deal with the same as they may think fit.

Inspection
of drains,
etc.

111. (1) The Municipality or any officer appointed by them for such purposes may, subject to the restrictions of this Act, inspect any sewer, drain, privy, water-closet, house-gully or cesspool, and for that purpose, at any time between sunrise and sunset, may enter upon any lands or buildings with assistants and workmen, and cause the ground to be opened where he or they may think fit, doing as little damage as may be.

Expense of inspection
when to be borne by the Municipality

(2) The expense of such inspection, and of causing the ground to be closed and made good as before shall be borne by the Municipality, unless the sewer, drain, privy water-closet, house-gully or cesspool is found to be in bad order or condition, or was constructed in contravention of the provisions of any enactment, or of any by-laws of the Municipality in force at the time, in which case such expenses shall be paid by the owner of such sewer, drain, privy, water-closet, house-gully or cesspool and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII.

(2) The expenses of any work so done shall be paid by the person aforesaid, unless the Municipality shall, by a general or special order or resolution, sanction, as they are hereby empowered to sanction, the execution of such work at the charge of the municipal fund.

(3) Any pipes, fittings, receptacles, or other appliances for or connected with the drainage of private buildings or lands shall, if supplied, constructed or erected at the expense of the Municipality, be deemed to be municipal property, unless the Municipality shall have transferred their interest therein to the owner of such buildings or lands.

(4) Powers regarding external structures, etc.

113. (1) The Municipality may give written permission to the owners or occupiers of buildings in public streets to put up open verandahs, balconies or rooms, to project from any upper storey thereof, at such height from the surface of the street as the Municipality may fix by by-laws from time to time, and to an extent not exceeding four feet beyond the line of the plinth or basement wall, and may prescribe the extent to which and the conditions under which, roofs, leaves, weather-boards, ¹[shop-boards] and the like may be allowed to project over such streets. Permission necessary for certain projections.

²[(2) (a)] Any such owner or occupier putting up any such projections as aforesaid without such permission or in contravention of such orders, shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees, and if any such owner or occupier, fails to remove any such projection as aforesaid in respect of which he has been convicted under this section, he shall be punished with further fine which may extend to five rupees for each day on which such failure or neglect continues.

³[(b) Notwithstanding any proceedings which may be taken under clause (a) of this sub-section, the Municipality may, by written notice, require the owner or occupier of any such building to remove or alter any such projection which has been constructed either without, or contrary in any manner to, the permission of the Municipality.]

(3) The Municipality may by written notice require the owner or occupier of any building to remove or alter any projection, encroachment or obstruction which, whether erected before or after the site of such building became part of a municipal district, shall have been erected or placed against or in front of such building, and which— Removal of projections.

(a) overhangs or juts into, or in any way projects or encroaches upon, any public street, so as to be an obstruction to safe and convenient passage along such street, or which

(b) projects and encroaches into or upon any uncovered aqueduct, drain or sewer in such street, so as to obstruct or interfere with such aqueduct, drain or sewer, or the proper working thereof :

Provided always that the Municipality shall, if such projection, encroachment, or obstruction shall have been made in any place before the date on which such place became part of a municipal district, or after such date with the written permission of the Municipality, make reasonable compensation to every person who suffers damage by such removal or alteration ; and if any dispute shall arise touching the amount of such compensation, the same shall be ascertained and determined in the manner provided in section 160.

114. The Municipality may by written notice require the owner of every building in any street to put up and keep in good condition proper troughs and pipes for catching and carrying the water from the roof and other parts of such building, and for discharging the same, in such manner as they may think fit, so that it shall not fall upon the persons passing along the street. The Municipality may erect or fix to the outside of any building brackets for lamps to be lighted with oil or gas, or subject to the provisions of the ^{XIII}Indian Electricity Act, 1887, for lamps to be lighted with electricity or otherwise, or subject to the provisions of the ^{XIII}Indian Telegraph Act, 1885, as amended by subsequent enactments, for telegraph wires or telephonic wires, or for the conduct of electricity for locomotive purposes or such pipes as they may deem necessary for the proper ventilation of sewers and water-works, and such brackets and pipes shall be erected so as not to occasion any inconvenience or nuisance to the said building or any others in the neighbourhood.

Naming streets and numbering houses.

116. (1) The Municipality may from time to time cause to be put up or painted on a conspicuous part of any building at or near each end, corner or entrance to every street, the name by which such street is to be known, and may from time to time fix a number in a conspicuous place on the outer side of any building, or at the entrance of the enclosure thereof fronting the street.

(2) Any person who destroys, pulls down or defaces any such name or number or puts any name or number different from that put up by the Municipality, and any owner or occupier of any building who shall not at his own expense keep such number in good order after it has been put up thereon, shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees.

Penalty for defacing building,
etc.,

117. Any person

(a) who without the consent of the owner or occupier affixes any posting bill, placard or other paper or means of advertisement against or upon any building, wall, board, fence or pale, or

(b) who without such consent as aforesaid writes upon, soils, defaces or marks any such building, wall, board, fence or pale with chalk or paint or in any other way whatsoever, shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty rupees.

Removal and trimming of hedges,
trees, etc.,

118. The Municipality may by written notice require the owner or occupier of any land so to trim or prune the hedges thereof bordering any public street that the said hedges may not exceed the height of four feet from the level of the street, and width of four feet, and to cut down, lop, or trim all trees or shrubs which in any way overhang, endanger or obstruct, or which they deem likely to overhang, endanger, or obstruct any public street or to cause damage thereto, or which so overhang any public tank, well, or other provision for water-supply as to pollute, or be likely to pollute, the water thereof.

(5) Powers for promotion of public health, safety and convenience.

Ruinous or
buildings.

119. (1) If any building, or anything affixed thereon, be deemed by the Municipality to be in a ruinous state or likely to fall or in any other way dangerous to any inhabitant of such building or of any neighbouring building or to any occupier thereof, or to passengers, the Municipality shall immediately, if it appears to them to be necessary, cause a proper hoard or fence to be put up for the protection of passengers; all expenses incurred by the Municipality under this sub-section shall be paid by the owner or occupier of such building and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII.

² Central Acts.

(2) The Municipality shall also cause notice in writing to be given to the owner or occupier, requiring such owner or occupier forthwith to take down, secure, or repair such building, or thing affixed thereon, as the case shall require, and if such owner or occupier do not begin to repair, take down, or secure such building or thing within three days after the service of such notice, and complete such work with due diligence, the Municipality shall cause all or so much of such building or thing, as they shall think necessary, to be taken down, repaired or otherwise secured :

Action to be taken on default by owner or occupier.

Provided always that if the danger be not of hourly imminence, it shall be at the discretion of the Municipality, instead of themselves causing a hoard or fence to be put up, to issue in the first instance notice in writing to the owner or occupier to put up a proper hoard or fence, and in the event of the owner or occupier failing to put up within two days from the service of such notice a hoard or fence which the Municipality consider sufficient in the circumstances of the case Municipality shall at once cause such hoard or fence to be put up and thereafter proceed as provided in sub-sections (1) and (2).

Proviso if danger is not imminent.

120. (1) The Municipality may at any time by written notice require the owner of, or any person who has the control over, any well, stream, channel, tank or other source of water-supply, shall, whether it is private property or not,

Powers and duties with regard to dangerous, stagnant or insanitary sources of water-supply.

(a) keep and maintain any such source of water-supply, other than a stream, in good repair, or

(b) within a reasonable time to be specified in the notice, cleanse any such source of water-supply from silt, refuse and decaying vegetation, or

(c) in such manner as the Municipality prescribe, protect any such source of water-supply from pollution by surface drainage, or

(d) within twenty-four hours of such notice, repair, protect or enclose in such manner as the Municipality approve, any such source of water-supply other than a stream in its natural flow, if for want of sufficient repair, protection or enclosure, such source of water-supply is in the opinion of the Municipality dangerous to the health or safety of the public or of any persons having occasion to use or to pass or approach the same, or shall

(e) desist from using and from permitting others to use for drinking purposes any such source of water-supply which not being a stream in its natural flow, is proved to the satisfaction of the Municipality to be unfit for drinking : or

(f) if notwithstanding any such notice under clause (e) such use continues and cannot in the opinion of the Municipality be otherwise prevented, close, either temporarily or permanently, or fill up or enclose or fence in such manner as the Municipality consider sufficient to prevent such use, such source of water-supply as aforesaid :

(g) drain off or otherwise remove from any such source of water-supply, or from any land or premises or receptacle or reservoir attached or adjacent thereto, any stagnant water which the Municipality consider is injurious to health or offensive to the neighbourhood.

(2) If the owner or person having control as aforesaid, fails or neglects to comply with any such requisition within the time required by or under the provisions of sub-section (1), the Municipality may, and if in their opinion immediate action is necessary to protect the health or safety of any person, shall at once proceed to execute the work required by such notice, and all the expenses incurred therein by the Municipality shall be paid by the owner of, or person having control over, such water-supply, and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII :

Bemedy on non-compliance with directions issued.

Provided that in the case of any well or private stream or of any private channel, tank or other source of water-supply, the water of which is used by the public or by any section of the public as of right, the expenses incurred by the Municipality or necessarily incurred by such owner or person having such control, may, if the Municipality so direct, be paid from the municipal fund.

Displacing pavements, etc.

121. (1) Whoever displaces, takes up or makes any alteration in the pavement, gutter, flags or other materials, of any public street, or the fences, walls, or posts thereof, or any municipal lamp, lamp-post, bracket, water-post, hydrant, or other such municipal property therein, without the written consent of the Municipality, or other lawful authority, shall be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

Penalty for failure to replace after notice.

(2) Any person who, having displaced, taken up or made alteration in any such pavement, gutter, flags, or other materials, or in the fences, walls, posts, municipal lamps, lamp-posts, brackets, water-posts, hydrants, or other municipal property of any public street, shall fail to replace or restore the same to the satisfaction of the Municipality after notice to do so, shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and shall pay any expense which may be incurred in restoring the street, and such expense shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII.

Obstructions and encroachments upon public streets and open spaces.

122. (1) Whoever in any place after it has become a municipal district, shall have built or set up, or shall build or set up, any wall or any fence, rail, post, stall, verandah, platform, plinth, step or any projecting structure or thing, or other encroachment or obstruction, in any public street, or shall deposit or cause to be placed or deposited any box, bale, package or merchandise, or any other thing in such street, or in or over or upon, any open drain, gutter, sewer or aqueduct in such street, shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees¹ [and with further fine which may extend to five rupees for every day on which such projection, encroachment, obstruction or deposit continues after the date of first conviction for such offence.]

(2) The Municipality shall have power to remove any such obstruction or encroachment, and shall have the like power to remove any unauthorized obstruction or encroachment of the like nature in any open space not being private property, whether such space is vested in the Municipality or not, provided that if the space be vested in His Majesty the permission of the Collector shall have first been obtained, and the expense of such removal shall be paid by the person who has caused the said obstruction or encroachment, and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII.

(3) Whoever, not being duly authorised, in that behalf, removes earth, sand or other material from, or makes any encroachment in or upon, any open space which is not private property, shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and, in the case of an encroachment, with further fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day on which the encroachment continues after the date of first conviction for such offence.

(4) Nothing contained in the section shall prevent the Municipality from allowing any temporary occupation of or erections in any public street on occasions of festivals and ceremonies, or the piling of fuel in by-streets and spaces for not more than four days, and in such manner as not to inconvenience the public or any individual.

¹[(5) Nothing contained in this section shall apply to any projection duly authorized under sub-section (1) of section 113, or in any case where permission has been given under sub-section (4).]

123. (1) Every person intending to build or take down any building, or to alter or repair the outward part of any building, in such a position or in such circumstances as the work is likely to cause or may cause obstruction, danger or inconvenience in any street, shall before beginning such work, Hoards to be set up during repairs, etc.

(a) first obtain a licence in writing from the Municipality so to do, and

(b) cause sufficient hoards or fences to be put up in order to separate the building where such works are being carried on from the street and shall maintain such hoard or fence standing and in good condition to the satisfaction of the Municipality during such time as the public safety or convenience requires, and shall cause the same to be sufficiently lighted during the night, and shall remove the same when directed by the Municipality.

(2) Whoever contravenes any of the provisions of this section shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and with further fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day or night, as the case may be, on which such contravention continues, after the date of the first conviction.

124. (1) The Municipality shall, during the construction or repair of any of the streets, sewers, drains or other premises vested in them, take proper precaution for guarding against accident, by shoring up and protecting the adjoining buildings and shall cause such bars, chains or posts, to be fixed across or in any of the streets to prevent the passage of carriages, carts, or other vehicles, or of cattle or horses, while such works are carried on, as to them shall seem proper; and the Municipality shall cause any sewer or drain or other works in streets, during the construction or repair thereof, to be lighted with a sufficient light and guarded during the night. Fencing and lighting during repairs, etc.

(2) Whoever, takes down, alters or removes any of the said bars, chains or posts, or removes or extinguishes any such light, without the authority or consent of the Municipality, shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

125. (1) No person shall, without the written permission of the Municipality or otherwise than in accordance with such conditions as may therein be prescribed, make a hole in any street or erect or deposit thereon, any timber, stone, brick, earth or other material that has been, or is intended to be, used for building; and such permission shall be terminable at the discretion of the Municipality; and when such permission is granted to any person, he shall, at his own expense, cause such materials or such hole to be sufficiently fenced and enclosed until the materials are removed, or the hole is filled up or otherwise made secure, to the satisfaction of the Municipality, and shall cause the same to be sufficiently lighted during the night. Timber not to be deposited or hole made in a street without permission

(2) Whoever contravenes any of the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees, and with further fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day or night, as the case may be, on which such contravention continues, after the date of the first conviction.

126. ²* If in the opinion of the Municipality the working of any quarry or the removal of stone, earth or other material from the soil in any place, is dangerous to

(iv) places or sets down in any public place any vessel containing such offensive matter, or

(v) drives or takes or causes to be driven or taken any cart, carriage, receptacle or vessel used for any such purpose as aforesaid, through any street or by any route, other than such as shall from time to time be appointed for that purpose by the Municipality by public notice, shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees.

131. (1) Whoever, being the owner or occupier of any building or land, whether tenantable or otherwise, suffers the same to be in a filthy and unwholesome state or in the opinion of the Municipality a nuisance to persons residing in the neighbourhood, or overgrown with prickly-pear or rank and noisome vegetation, and who shall not, within a reasonable time after notice in writing by the Municipality to cleanse, clear or otherwise put the same in a proper state have complied with the requisition contained in such notice, shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees, and with further fine which may extend to five rupees for every day on which the failure to comply with the said notice is continued, after the date of the first conviction.

(2) Should the state of the building be such as in the judgement of the Municipality to render it unfit for human habitation, they may further by written notice prohibit the using thereof for that purpose until it is so rendered fit.

Deserted and offensive
buildings.

(3) If any building, by reason of dilapidation, neglect, abandonment, disuse or disputed ownership, or of its remaining untenanted and thereby,

(a) becoming a resort of idle and disorderly persons, or of persons who have no ostensible means of subsistence, or who cannot give a satisfactory account of themselves, or

(b) coming into use for any insanitary or immoral purpose, or

(c) affording a shelter to snakes, rats or other dangerous or offensive animals, is open to the objection that it is a nuisance, or so unwholesome or unsightly as to be a source of discomfort, inconvenience or annoyance to the neighbourhood or to persons passing by such building, the Municipality, if they consider such objection cannot under any other provision of this Act be otherwise removed, may, if there is any person known or resident within the municipal district who claims to be the owner of such building, by written notice directed to such person, require such person or in any other case by written notice fixed on the door or any other conspicuous part of the building, require all persons claiming to be interested in such building, within a period which shall be specified in the notice and shall not be less than seven days from the date of such notice, to cause such building to be taken down and the materials thereof to be removed, and in the event of non-compliance with such requirement, the Municipality, on the expiration of the period specified as aforesaid, may forthwith cause the building to be taken down and the materials to be removed, and may sell such materials and apply the proceeds to defray any expenses incurred by them in so doing, and all such expenses not thereby defrayed shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII.

Power to enter and inspect, etc.,
buildings.

132. It shall be lawful for the president, vice-president, or any councillor or officer authorized by the Municipality in this behalf, at any time between sunrise and sunset, on giving such notice as hereinafter provided, to enter into and inspect all buildings and lands, and by written notice to direct all or any part thereof to be forthwith internally and externally lime-washed or otherwise cleansed for sanitary reasons.

Bathing places.

133. (1) The Municipality may set apart sufficient public places, or any part of the sea-shore, not being private property, for the purpose of being used as bathing places, and may also provide or set apart a sufficient number of convenient tanks or runs of water for the inhabitants to bathe in; and may also set apart tanks or reservoirs or runs of water for washing animals or clothes, and for all purposes connected with the health, cleanliness and comfort of the inhabitants, and may prohibit the use, for any purpose mentioned in this section, of any or all other public places within the municipal district.

(2) Copies of all orders passed and notices issued by the Municipality and for the time being in force under this section, shall be kept at the municipal office and shall be open for inspection by the public at all reasonable times.

Regulation of washing of clothes by washermen.

¹[133A. (1) The Municipality may, by public notice, prohibit the washing of clothes by washermen in the exercise of their calling, except at such places as it shall appoint for this purpose; and when any such prohibition has been made, no person who is, by calling, a washerman shall wash clothes at any place not appointed for this purpose by the Municipality, except for such person himself or for the owner or occupier of such place.

¹ Section 133A was inserted by Bom. 12 of 1931, s. 2 (viii).

(2) The Municipality shall provide suitable places for the exercise by washermen of their calling and may require payment of such fees for the use of any such place as shall from time to time be determined by it. Washing place to be provided by the Municipality for washermen.

(3) The Municipality shall, before issuing any public notice under sub-section (1), publish in such manner as shall in its opinion be sufficient, for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby, a list of washing places proposed to be provided under sub-section (2), together with a notice specifying a date on or after which the list will be taken into consideration; and shall, before finally fixing the said places, receive and consider any objection or suggestion in respect thereto which may be made in writing by any person before the date so specified.]

134. (a) Whoever, in disobedience of any order of the Municipality under section 133, or of any by-laws, bathes in any stream, pool, tank, reservoir, well, cistern, conduit or aqueduct belonging to the Municipality, or washes, or causes to be washed therein, any animal or anything whatever, or throws, puts or casts or causes to enter therein any animal or anything or causes or suffers to run, drain or be brought thereinto anything that is, or may become, a nuisance, or does anything whatsoever whereby any water therein shall be in any degree fouled or corrupted, and Fouling water.

(b) whoever without permission of the Municipality, steeps in any tank, stream, or ditch within, or on the boundary of, the municipal district any animal, vegetable or mineral matter likely to render the water of such tank, stream or ditch offensive or a nuisance, shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

135. When any pool, ditch, tank, pond, well, whole or any waste or stagnant water, or any channel or receptacle of foul water or other offensive or injurious matter, whether the same be within any private enclosure or otherwise, shall appear to the Municipality to be likely to prove injurious to the health of the inhabitants or offensive to the neighbourhood, the Municipality may by written notice require the owner of the same to cleanse, fill up, drain off or remove the same, or to take such measures as shall, in their opinion, be necessary to abate or remove the nuisance. Abatement of nuisances.

136. Whoever, except with the written permission of the Municipality, and in the way, if any, enjoined in such permission, stores or uses night-soil or other manure or substance emitting an offensive smell, shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees. Using offensive manure etc.

137. shall in all cases be constructed, supplemented or altered so as to consume or burn, or reduce as far as may be practicable, the smoke arising from such furnace.

(2) If any person shall after such direction use, or permit to be used, any such furnace not so constructed, supplemented, or altered, or shall so negligently use, or permit to be used, any such furnace as that the smoke arising therefrom shall not be effectually consumed or burnt as far as may be practicable, every person so offending, being the owner or occupier of the said works or buildings, or being an agent or other person employed by such owner or occupier for managing the same, shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and upon any subsequent conviction to five hundred rupees :

Provided that nothing in this section shall be held to apply to locomotive engines used for the purpose of traffic upon any railway or for the repair of roads.

(7) Regulation of markets, sale of food, etc.

Licensing markets and slaughter-
houses.

139. (1) It shall be lawful for the Municipality to direct that no place shall be used as a market for the sale of animals, meat, fish, fruit or vegetables intended for human food, or as a slaughter-house, excepting the public markets or slaughter-houses constructed or opened by the Municipality, or such other markets or slaughter-houses as may have been licensed in writing by the Municipality, who may, at their discretion from time to time, grant, suspend, withhold or withdraw such licences, either generally or in individual instances.

(2) No person shall, in any municipal district in which by-laws are in force prescribing the conditions on and subject to which, and the circumstances in which, licences for shops for the sale of such commodities may be granted, refused, suspended or withdrawn, use without a licence from the Municipality granted in accordance with by-laws made under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 48 any place as a shop for the sale of animals, meat or fish, intended for human food, except in a municipal or licensed market.

(3) Whoever, contrary to such direction or without the licence required as aforesaid, or otherwise than in accordance with the conditions on or subject to which such licence was granted, sells or exposes for sale any such animals or commodities, or uses or permits the use of a place as a shop for the sale thereof or uses any place as a slaughter-house, shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees.

(4) Upon a conviction being obtained in respect of any place which has, without, or during the suspension or after the withdrawal of, a licence, been used or permitted to be used as a shop for such sale as aforesaid, the Magistrate shall, on the application of the Municipality, but not otherwise, order such place to be closed, and thereupon appoint persons, or take other steps, to prevent such place being so used, and every person, who so uses or permits the use of a place after it has been so ordered to be closed, shall be punished with a fine which may extend to five rupees for each day during which he continues so to use, or permit such use of, the place after it has been so ordered to be closed.

(5) Nothing contained in this section shall apply to the use of any hotel or eating house for the sale of food served for consumption on the premises.

Opening, closing and letting of markets
and slaughter-
houses.

140. (1) The Municipality may from time to time open or close any public market or slaughter-house. They may also either take stallage or other rents or fees for the use by any person of any such market or slaughter-house, or from time to time sell by public auction or otherwise the privilege of occupying any stall or space in, or of otherwise using, any such market or slaughter-house.

(2) Any person who, without the permission or licence of the Municipality, shall sell or expose for sale any article in the said markets or use the said slaughter-houses, shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees.

141. It shall be lawful for the Municipality, with the sanction of the Commissioner or, if authorized by him, of the Collector, to establish slaughter-houses or places for the disposal of carcasses of animals, beyond the limits of the municipal district, and all provisions of this Act and of by-laws in force thereunder relating to such places within municipal limits, shall have full force therein, as if such places were within the municipal limits. Slaughter-houses, etc., beyond municipal limits.

142. (1) The president, vice-president or any councillor or officer authorized by the Municipality in this behalf— Search for and inspection of unwholesome articles.

(a) may at all reasonable times enter into any place for the purpose of inspecting, and may inspect, any animals, carcasses, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, fruit, vegetables, corn, bread, flour, milk, ghee, butter or other articles intended for human food or drink or for medicine, whether exposed or hawked about for sale, or deposited in, or brought to, any place for the purpose of sale or of preparation for sale, or may enter into and inspect any place used as a slaughter-house, and may examine anything which may be therein; and
(b) in case any such animals, carcasses, or other articles before mentioned appear to be diseased or unsound or unwholesome or unfit for human food or drink or medicine may seize the same.

Any article which is of a perishable nature may, under the orders of the president, vice-president or chairman of the managing committee or of a committee appointed under section 29 to exercise all or any of the powers vested in the Municipality under this sub-chapter ¹[or of the Municipal Commissioner, if any,] if in his opinion it is diseased, unsound, unwholesome or unfit for food, drink and medicine, forthwith be destroyed.

Every animal and every article which is not of a perishable nature, if seized as aforesaid, shall be taken before a Magistrate.

If it appear to the Magistrate upon sufficient evidence that any such article is diseased or unsound or unwholesome or unfit for human food, drink or medicine, the owner or person in whose possession it was found, not being merely bailee or carrier thereof, shall, if in such case the provisions of section 273 of the ²Indian Penal Code do not apply, be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, and the Magistrate shall cause such article to be destroyed or to be so disposed of as to prevent its being exposed for sale or used for food or drink or medicine.

³(2) In every municipal district in which this sub-section is, by virtue of a notification ⁴[issued] under the Bombay Prevention of Adulteration Act, 1899, ⁵[as if the sub-section were part of section 5 of that Act,] for the time being in force, and applicable to food of all kinds or of any specified kind, Adulterated articles for food or drink.

1860:

Explanation.—If such article having been exposed or stored in, or brought to any place mentioned in sub-section (1) for sale as ghee, contains any substance not exclusively derived from milk, it shall be deemed to be, for the purposes of this sub-section, an article which is not what it is represented to be :

Protection to persons acting in good faith.

Provided that when any article of food referred to in this sub-section appears to the Magistrate not to be what it is represented to be, solely by reason of the fact that there has been added to it some substance not injurious to health, no offence shall be deemed to have been committed by the owner of the article or the person in whose possession the same is found, if such owner or person proves to the satisfaction of the Magistrate—

(a) that such substance has been added to the article of food, because the same is required for the production or preparation thereof, as an article of commerce in a state fit for carriage for consumption, and not fraudulently to increase the bulk, weight, or measure of the food or conceal the inferior quality thereof, or

(b) that in the process of production, preparation or conveyance of such article of food, the extraneous substance has unavoidably become intermixed therewith, or

(c) that, by a label distinctly and legibly written or printed on or with the said article of food or by other means of public description, he has given sufficient notice that such substance has been so added, or

(d) that—

(i) the said article was purchased by him with a written warranty that it was of a certain nature, substance and quality,

(ii) he had no reason to believe that it was not of such nature, substance and quality as aforesaid, and

(iii) it was not exposed, hawked about, or brought for sale by him otherwise than as an article of the nature, substance and quality specified in the written warranty, and was in the same state in which he purchased it.

(8) Prevention of dangerous diseases.

144. (1) The ¹[Provincial Government] ²[in the case of City Municipalities, Powers and the Commissioner in other cases,] may at any time confer by notification on which any Municipality designated therein, all or any of the powers specified in sub-section (2), and such Municipality shall, subject to all such limitations, restrictions, ^{may at any time be conferred.} and conditions, if any, as the ¹[Provincial Government] ²[or the Commissioner, as the case may be,] in the same or in any subsequent notification may prescribe in such behalf, exercise within the municipal district every power so conferred on them, for such period as may be specified in this behalf in any such notification, or if no period is so specified then until such power is withdrawn.

(a) power by orders, which may be either of special or general application, to direct that every medical practitioner, who knows or may have reason to believe that any person whom he has visited in his professional capacity in any dwelling not being a hospital, or that every manager of any factory or educational institution, or every head of a household, who knows or has reason to believe that any person who resides in any dwelling under the management or control of any such manager or head of a household, is suffering from any illness which may reasonably be supposed to be a dangerous disease, shall give information of the same with the least practicable delay to such person as may be designated by the Municipality in that behalf ;

(b) power to direct or authorize the inspection, without notice, or with such notice as to the person directed or authorized to inspect, appears reasonable, any place in which any dangerous disease is reported or suspected to exist, and the taking of measures to prevent the spread of the disease beyond such place ;

(c) power to prohibit the removal of water for the purpose of drinking from any well, tank or other place which may appear to the Municipality, on the advice of a medical officer, likely to engender or cause the spread of any dangerous disease ;

(d) power to direct or cause the removal, on a certificate signed by any duly qualified medical practitioner authorized by the Municipality in this behalf, of any person who is without proper lodging or accommodation, or who is lodged in a room or set of apartments occupied by more than one family, and who is suffering from a dangerous disease, to any hospital or place at which persons suffering from the said disease are received for medical treatment ;

(e) power to require by written notice the owner or occupier of any building or part of a building, or a person owning or in charge of any article therein, to cleanse or disinfect such building or part thereof or article, either at his own expense or in case of poverty, or for other cause which the Municipality in the circumstances of the case consider reasonable, at the expense of the Municipality ;

(f) power to provide the means, and to prescribe places, for disinfecting or washing bedding or other articles which have been exposed to infection from any dangerous disease, and to direct the destruction thereof ;

(g) power—

(i) to provide and maintain suitable conveyances for the free carriage of persons suffering from any dangerous disease, and

(ii) when such provision is made, to prohibit the conveyance of such persons in all or any public conveyances, and

(iii) to direct that any conveyances that may at any time be used for conveying any such person shall be immediately disinfected ;

(h) power to prohibit—

(i) any person suffering from any dangerous disease from wilfully exposing himself, without proper precautions against spreading the said disease, in any street or in any school or factory, or in any inn, dharamshala, theatre, market or other place of public resort, or

(ii) any person in charge of any person so suffering from so exposing such sufferer ;

(i) power to prohibit any person from removing to another place, or transferring to another person, except for the purpose of disinfection, any article which the person prohibited knows, or has reason to believe, has been exposed to infection of any kind whatsoever from any dangerous disease ;

(j) power to prohibit the letting of or the providing of accommodation in any hotel, inn, dharamshala or serai, in which a person has, or in which there is reason to believe that a person has, been suffering from a dangerous disease, unless and until the person desiring so to let or provide accommodation shall have had the building, or part thereof, and any article therein likely to retain infection, disinfected to the satisfaction of the Municipality or of such officer as the Municipality appoint in this behalf ;

(k) power, with the previous permission in each case of a Magistrate exercising not less than second class powers, to destroy any insanitary huts or sheds in which there is reason to believe that persons have been suffering from dangerous disease.

(3) The Municipality may, in their discretion, give compensation to any person who sustains substantial loss by the destruction of any property under this section, but, except as allowed by the Municipality, no claim for compensation shall lie for any loss or damage caused by any exercise of the powers specified therein.

(4) Any person who in a municipal district disobeys any order which is for the time being in force therein, and which has been passed by the Municipality in exercise of any power conferred on such Municipality under this section, or obstructs any officer of the Municipality or other person acting under the authority of the Municipality in carrying out executively any such order, shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

Penalties for disobedience to an order passed in exercise of such powers.

145. (1) In the event of the municipal district or any part thereof being at any time threatened or visited with an outbreak of any dangerous disease the Municipality shall take all such measures as they deem necessary for the purpose of preventing, meeting, mitigating or suppressing such outbreak.

Duties of Municipality on threatened or actual outbreak of dangerous disease.

(2) In such event as aforesaid the ¹[Provincial Government] ²[in the case of City Municipalities, and the Commissioner in other cases], may by special notification, declaring that such municipal district is threatened or visited with an outbreak of a dangerous disease, confer on the Municipality all or any of the additional powers specified in the following sub-section, and such Municipality shall, subject to such limitations, restrictions and conditions, if any, as the ¹[Provincial Government] ²[or the Commissioner, as the case may be] in the same or in any subsequent notification may prescribe, exercise every such power so conferred on them until the same is withdrawn by means of a like notification.

(3) The powers all or any of which may be conferred under the preceding sub-section are—

(a) power to order, subject, to the conditions,

(i) that the permission of a Magistrate exercising not less than second class powers shall be in each case first obtained, and

(ii) that accommodation for all persons to whom the order refers is available, or shall be provided, elsewhere, the evacuation of an infected building used as a dwelling, or of any part thereof, or of any building so used adjacent to such building, by the person or persons residing, whether habitually or temporarily, therein ;

(b) power to direct the examination by a medical officer of persons, and if necessary, the disinfection of the clothing, bedding or other suspicious articles belonging to persons, either arriving from places outside the municipal district or residing in any building adjacent to any infected building, and to direct that any such person shall give his address and present himself daily for medical examination at such time and places as may be prescribed, for a period not exceeding ten days ;

(c) power to prohibit either generally, or by special order in any individual case, assemblages consisting of any number of persons exceeding fifty, in any place whether public or private, or in any circumstances, or for any purpose, if in the opinion, recorded in writing, of the Civil Surgeon of the district or other medical officer appointed by the ¹[Provincial Government] on this behalf, such assemblages in such place, in such circumstances or for such purpose, would be likely to become a means of spreading the disease or of rendering it more virulent.

(4) The Municipality may in their discretion give compensation to any person who sustains substantial loss by the destruction of any property under this section ; but except as allowed by the Municipality, no claim for compensation shall lie for any loss or damage caused by any exercise of the powers specified therein.

Penal clauses. (5) If in any municipal district in which such declaration under sub-section (2) as aforesaid is for the time being in force, any person —

(a) knowingly disobeys any order which for the time being is in force in such district and which has been passed by the Municipality in exercise of any power conferred on them under section 144 or under this section, or

(b) obstructs any officer of the Municipality or other person acting under the authority of the Municipality in carrying out executively any such order, such person shall be punished with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

Withdrawal and modification of powers and orders.

146. (1) The ¹[Provincial Government] ²[or the Commissioner as the case may be] may at any time

(a) withdraw any power conferred under section 144 or under section 145 ;

(b) cancel or modify any limitation, restriction or condition prescribed in respect of any such powers ; or

(c) cancel any order passed by a Municipality in exercise of any such power.

(2) Every order passed by a Municipality in exercise of any such power as aforesaid shall, on the withdrawal of such power, cease to be in force in the municipal district.

Duties of Municipality in respect of diseases among cattle, sheep or goats.

147. If in any municipal district any infectious disease amongst cattle, sheep or goats breaks out, or if the introduction of any such disease appears to be likely, the Municipality shall take all such measures as they deem necessary for the purpose of preventing, meeting, mitigating or suppressing the disease or the outbreak or introduction thereof.

Proceedings to abate the overcrowding of the interiors of buildings.

148. (1) Whenever the Municipality consider the interior of a building is so overcrowded as to be, or to be likely to become, dangerous or prejudicial to the health of the inhabitants of that or of any neighbouring building, the Municipality may cause proceedings to be taken before a Magistrate of the first class for the purpose of obtaining an order to prevent such overcrowding.

Procedure of Magistrate.

(2) Such Magistrate may, on the production of a certificate by a medical officer stating his opinion that the overcrowding complained of is likely to cause disease, or risk of disease, and after such further inquiry, if any, as may appear to such Magistrate necessary, require the owner of the building within a reasonable time, not being more than six weeks or less than ten days, to abate the number of lodgers, tenants or other inmates of the said building to such extent as he shall deem necessary to prescribe, or may pass such other order as he shall deem just and proper.

(3) If the owner of the said building shall have sublet the same, the landlord of the lodgers, tenants, or other actual inmates of the same shall for the purposes of this ³[section] be deemed to be the owner of the building.

³ This word was substituted for the word " sub-section " by s. 2 of the Bombay District Municipal Act (1901) Amendment Act, 1902 (Bom. 3 of 1902).

(4) It shall be incumbent on any owner, to whom a requisition is issued under sub-section (2), forthwith to give to so many of the lodgers, tenants or other actual inmates of the said building as may be necessary to fulfil the conditions prescribed thereby, written notice to vacate the said building within the period specified in such requisition, and any such lodgers, tenants or inmates receiving such notice shall be bound to comply therewith.

(5) Any owner who after the date specified in any requisition issued under sub-section (2) permits the overcrowding of any building in contravention of such requisition, and any person who omits to vacate any such building in accordance with notice given to him under sub-section (4), shall be punished with fine which may extend to ten rupees for each day subsequent to the date specified in such requisition during which such overcrowding, or such omission to vacate, continues.

149. (1) If the ¹[Provincial Government] is of opinion that risk of disease has arisen or is likely to arise, either to any occupier in, or to any inhabitants in the neighbourhood of, any area by reason of any of the following defects, namely—

(a) the manner in which either buildings, or blocks of buildings, already existing or projected therein, are, or are likely to become crowded together; or

(b) the impracticability of cleansing any such buildings or blocks of buildings, already existing or projected; or

(c) the want of drainage or scavenging, or the difficulty of arranging therein for the drainage or scavenging of any such buildings or blocks or area as aforesaid; or

(d) the narrowness, closeness, bad arrangement or bad condition of the streets or buildings or groups of buildings;

²[it] may by notification confer on the Municipality, to which such area is subject, all or any of the powers specified in sub-section (2), and may, if ²[it] deem necessary, at any time make rules prescribing any limitations, restrictions, modifications, conditions or regulations, subject to which the Municipality shall exercise within that area all powers so conferred, unless and until those powers are withdrawn by a subsequent notification of the ¹[Provincial Government].

(2) The powers all or any of which may be conferred on a Municipality under sub-section (1) are as follows :—

(a) power, when any building or block already existing or in course of erection, by reason of any defect specified in sub-section (1), has given or is in the opinion of the Municipality likely to give rise to such risk as aforesaid, to require by a written notice, to be fixed upon some conspicuous part of such building or block, and addressed as the Municipality deem fit either to the owners thereof, or to the owners of the land on which such building or block is erected or is in course of erection, that the persons so addressed shall, within a reasonable time as shall be specified in the notice, either pull down or remove the said building or block, or execute such works or take such action in connection therewith as the Municipality deem necessary to prevent all such risk of disease ;

(b) power by municipal or other agency, to pull down or remove the said building or block, or to execute such works or take such action, if the persons addressed in the said notice neglect so to do within the time specified therein ;

(c) power, subject to a right of appeal to the Commissioner, whose decision shall be conclusive, to prohibit by written notice addressed to the owner and occupier of any such site or space, and by general notice published in the manner provided in sub-section (3) of section 154, the erection of any building of or any building exceeding such dimensions as may be specified,

(i) on the site of any building which has, in whole or in part, in exercise of the power specified in clause (a), been pulled down, or

(ii) on any space not occupied by buildings, whether such space is private property or not and whether it is enclosed or not,

if the Municipality consider that in order to prevent such risk as aforesaid, such site or space should not be built upon, and either

(a) to acquire such site or space, or

(b) to prescribe such conditions as may be deemed necessary as to the use which the owner or occupier may make or permit to be made thereof :

Provided that in every case compensation, the amount of which shall, in case of dispute, be ascertained and determined in the manner provided in section 160, shall be paid to any person whose rights are affected by such prohibition.

(3) When, in pursuance of any notice under sub-section (2), any building has been pulled down, the Municipality shall, unless it has been erected contrary to any provision of this Act or of any by-law in force thereunder, pay to such owner or occupier as may have sustained damage thereby reasonable compensation, the amount of which shall, in case of dispute, be ascertained or determined in the manner provided in section 160.

(4) In making any rule under sub-section (1) the ¹[Provincial Government] may prescribe a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees for every breach, and a further fine not exceeding twenty rupees a day for every continuing breach of any order made or conditions imposed by the Municipality in exercise of the powers conferred upon them under this section or in pursuance of such rules.

Closing of places for disposal of the dead.

150. (1) If the Municipality be of opinion that any place used for the disposal of the dead is in such a state as to be, or to be likely to become, injurious to health, they may submit their opinion with the reasons therefor to the ²[Commissioner] and the ²[Commissioner] thereupon, after such further inquiry, if any as he shall deem fit to cause to be made, may by notification direct that such place shall cease to be so used from such date as may be specified on that behalf in the said notification.

(2) A copy of the said notification together with a translation thereof in the vernacular of the district shall be published in the local newspapers, if any, and

(6) In the event of non-compliance with the terms of the notice it shall be lawful for the Municipality to take such action or such steps as may be necessary for the completion of the act thereby required to be done, and all the expenses therein incurred by the Municipality shall be paid by the person or persons upon whom the notice was served, and shall be recoverable in the manner provided in [section 160A].

Punishment for disobedience to orders and notices not punishable under any other section.

155. Whoever disobeys or fails to comply with any lawful direction given by any written notice issued by a Municipality under any power conferred by this Chapter, or fails to comply with the conditions subject to which any permission was given to him by the Municipality under any power so conferred, shall, if the disobedience or failure is not an offence punishable under any other section, be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and with further fine which may extend to five rupees for every day on which the said disobedience or failure continues after the date of the first conviction :

Provided that when the notice fixes a time within which a certain act is to be done, and no time is specified in this Act, it shall rest with the Magistrate to determine whether the time so fixed was a reasonable time within the meaning of this Act.

Municipality in default of owner or occupier may execute works and recover expenses.

156. (1) Whenever, under the provisions of this Act, any work is required to be executed by the owner or occupier of any building or land, and default is made in the execution of such work, the Municipality, whether any penalty is or is not provided for such default, may cause such work to be executed; and the expenses thereby incurred shall, unless otherwise expressly provided in this Act, be paid to them by the person by whom such work ought to have been executed, and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII either in one sum or by instalments as to the Municipality may seem fit :

Provided that—

Agreement for construction of drainage and water connections.

(a) whenever any drainage scheme or water-works scheme has been commenced by any Municipality, it shall be lawful for the Municipality, without prejudice to their powers under sub-section (1) or section 101 or any other provision of this Act, to make a special agreement with the owner of any building or land as to the manner in which the drainage or water-connection thereof shall be carried out, and the pecuniary or other assistance, if any, which the Municipality shall render, and any payment agreed upon by the owner shall be recovered in accordance with the terms of such agreement, or, in default, in the manner described in sub-sections (2) and (3) :

Provided also that—

Improvement expenses.

(b) when an order has been passed under sub-section (3) of section 90, sub-section (1) of section 91, ²[sub-section (2)] or (6) of section 96 or under sections 99, 101, 106 or 107 or when permission has been given under section 102, or when an arrangement has been made under proviso (a) of this sub-section, the Municipality may, without prejudice to any other powers under this Act, if they think fit, declare any expenses incurred as aforesaid by the Municipality to be

improvement expenses. Improvement expenses shall be a charge upon the premises or land, shall be levied in such instalments as the Municipality decide, including interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum and shall be recoverable in the manner described in sub-sections (2) and (3)

(2) If the defaulter be the owner of the building or land, the Municipality may, by way of additional remedy, whether a suit or proceeding has been taken against such owner or not, require, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) the payment of all or any part of the expenses payable by the owner for the time being, from the person who then, or any time thereafter, occupies the building or land under such owner; and in default of payment thereof by such occupier on demand, the same may be levied from such occupier, and every amount so leviable shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII; every such occupier shall be entitled to deduct from the rent payable by him to his landlord so much as has been so paid by or recovered from such occupier in respect of any such expenses.

(3) No occupier of any building or land shall be liable to pay more money in respect of any expenses charged by this Act on the owner thereof, than the amount of rent which is due from such occupier for the building or land in respect of which such expenses are payable at the time of the demand made upon him, or which at any time after such demand and notice not to pay the same to his landlord, has accrued and become payable by such occupier, unless he neglect or refuse, upon application made to him for that purpose by the Municipality, truly to disclose the amount of his rent, and the name and the address of the person to whom such rent is payable; but the burden of proof that the sum demanded of any such occupier is greater than the rent which was due by him at the time of such demand, or which has since accrued, shall be upon such occupier:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall be taken to affect any special contract made between any such occupier and the owner respecting the payment of the expense of any such works as aforesaid.

157. Whenever default is made by the owner of any building or land in the execution of any work required to be executed by him, the occupier of such building or land may, with the approval of the Municipality, cause such work to be executed, and the expense thereof shall be paid to him by the owner, or the amount may be deducted out of the rent from time to time becoming due from him to such owner.

158. If the occupier of any building or land prevents the owner thereof from carrying into effect, in respect of such building or land, any of the provisions of this Act, after notice of his intention so to carry them into effect has been given by the owner to such occupier, any Magistrate upon proof thereof, and upon application of the owner, may make an order in writing requiring such occupier to permit the owner to execute all such works, with respect to such building or land, as may be necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this Act, and may also, if he thinks fit, order the occupier to pay to the owner the costs relating to such application or order; and if, after the expiration of eight days from the date of the order, such occupier continue to refuse to permit such owner to execute such work, such occupier shall, for every day during which he so continues to refuse, be punished with a fine which may extend to fifty rupees; and every such owner during the continuance of such refusal, shall be discharged from any penalties to which he might otherwise have become liable by reason of his default in executing such works.

Entry for
of the Act.

159. It shall be lawful for the president or vice president, or any councillor or officer authorized by the Municipality for such purposes, to enter for the purposes of this Act, between sunrise and sunset, into and upon any building or land, as well for the purpose of making any survey or inspection they may be entitled to make as for the purpose of executing any work authorised by this Act to be executed by them :

Provided that, except when herein otherwise provided, no building or land which may be occupied at the time shall be entered unless with the consent of the occupier thereof, without twenty-four hours' written notice thereof having been given to the said occupier :

Provided also that in the case of buildings used as human dwellings, due regard shall be paid to the social and religious customs of the occupiers.

Arbitration in cases of compensation, etc.

160. (1) If a dispute arises with respect to any ¹[compensation or damages] which are by this Act directed to be paid, the amount, and if necessary the apportionment of the same, shall be ascertained and determined by a panchayat of five persons, of whom two shall be appointed by the Municipality, two by the party ²[to or from whom such ¹[compensation or damages] may be payable or recoverable] and one, who shall be sir-panch, shall be selected by the members already appointed as above.

(2) If either party or both parties fail to appoint members, or if the members fail to select a sir-panch within one month from the date of either party receiving written notice from the other of claim to such ¹[compensation or damages], such members as may be necessary to constitute the panchayat shall be appointed, at the instance of either party, by the District Judge.

(3) In the event of the panchayat not giving a decision within one month from the date of the selection of the sir-panch or of the appointment by the District Court of such members as may be necessary to constitute the panchayat, the matter shall, on application by either party, be determined by the District Court which shall, in cases in which the compensation is claimed in respect of land, follow as far as may be the procedure provided by the ³Land Acquisition Act, 1894, for proceedings in matters referred for the determination of the Court : I of 1894.

Provided that—

- (a) no application to the Collector for a reference shall be necessary, and
- (b) the Court shall have full power to give and apportion the costs of all proceedings in any manner it thinks fit.

CHAPTER X.

PROSECUTIONS, SUITS AND POWERS OF POLICE.

161. (1) The Municipality ¹[and, in the case of offences against any of the provisions of this Act mentioned in section 183 (d), the chief officer] may direct any prosecution for any public nuisance whatever, and may order proceedings to be taken for the recovery of any penalties, and for the punishment of any persons offending against the provisions of this Act, or of any by-law thereunder, and may order the expenses of such prosecutions or other proceedings to be paid out of the municipal fund : Municipality may prosecute.

Provided that no prosecution for an offence under this Act shall be instituted except within six months next after the commission of such offence.

(2) Any prosecution under this Act or under any by-laws thereunder may, save as therein otherwise provided, be instituted before any Magistrate and every fine or penalty imposed under or by virtue of this Act or any by-law thereunder, and also all claims to compensation or other expenses for the recovery of which no special provision is otherwise made in this Act, may be recovered on application to such Magistrate, by the distress and sale of any moveable property within the limits of his jurisdiction belonging to the person from whom the money is claimable. Jurisdiction of Magistrate.

162. No distress levied by virtue of this Act shall be deemed unlawful nor shall any party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in any summons, conviction or warrant of distress or other proceeding relating thereto, nor shall such party be deemed a trespasser ab initio on account of any irregularity afterwards committed by him ; but all persons aggrieved by such irregularity may recover full satisfaction for the special damage in any Court of competent jurisdiction. Distress lawful though defective in form.

163. If through any act, neglect or default, on account whereof any person shall have incurred any penalty imposed by or under this Act, any damage to the property of the Municipality shall have been committed by such person, he shall be liable to make good such damage as well as to pay such penalty, and the amount of damage shall, in case of dispute, be determined by the Magistrate by whom the person incurring such penalty is convicted, and on non-payment of such damage on demand the same shall be levied by distress, and such Magistrate shall issue his warrant accordingly. Damage to municipal property how made good.

164. In lieu of proceeding by distress and sale, or in case of failure to realise by so proceeding the whole or any part of any amount recoverable under the provisions of Chapter VIII, or of any compensation, expenses, charges or damages awarded under this Act, it shall be lawful for the Municipality to sue in any Court of competent jurisdiction the person liable to pay the same, as also any other person who may have in any other way caused, or may appear likely to cause, any injury to any property, rights or privileges of the Municipality. Alternative procedure by suit.

165. (1) The Municipality may compound or compromise in respect of any suit instituted by or against them, or, in respect of any claim or demand arising out of any contract entered into by them under this Act, for such sum of money or other compensation as they shall deem sufficient : Power to compromise.

¹ These words, figures and letter were inserted by Bom. S of 1914, s. 28.

Provided that, if any sanction in the making of any contract is required by this Act, the like previous sanction shall be obtained for compounding or compromising any claim or demand arising out of such contract.

(2) The Municipality may make compensation out of the municipal fund to any person sustaining any damage by reason of the exercise of any of the powers vested in them, their officers and servants under this Act.

● Assistance for the recovery
of rent

186. The chief officer may, with the permission of the president, or in virtue of a resolution passed in this behalf at any meeting of the Municipality or of any committee, make an explanation in regard to any subject under discussion at such meeting, but shall not vote upon or make any proposition at any such meeting.

CHAPTER XIII.

THE MUNICIPAL COMMISSIONER, HIS POWERS AND DUTIES.

186A. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Chapter XIII, the ²[Provincial Government] may make an appointment of a Municipal Commissioner—

(a) for any municipal district which contains a population of not less than one hundred thousand inhabitants; and

(b) for any other municipal district on the application of the Municipality in this behalf, provided that such application has been previously supported by not less than two-thirds of the whole number of Councillors.

(2) The population of a municipal district shall be deemed to be the population as ascertained in the latest census taken in such municipal district, unless the ²[Provincial Government] thinks fit to direct that a special census may be taken in such municipal district for the purpose of ascertaining the population, whereupon the population shall be deemed to be the population as ascertained in such special census.

(3) When the appointment of a Municipal Commissioner has been once made for a municipal district which contained at that time a population of not less than one hundred thousand inhabitants as ascertained in sub-section (2), such appointment shall not cease by reason only of the fact that the population of such municipal district has fallen short of one hundred thousand inhabitants.

(4) On the appointment of a Municipal Commissioner the appointment of a chief officer, whether made under section 177 or section 182, shall forthwith terminate: provided that the appointment of a Municipal Commissioner shall not be made until such notice has been given to the chief officer, if any, as the terms of his appointment entitle him to receive and until the expiry of the period specified in such notice.

(5) The ²[Provincial Government] may at any time discontinue the appointment of a Municipal Commissioner for any municipal district for which such appointment has been made.

186B. (1) A Municipal Commissioner shall hold office for a period of three years, in the first instance, and thereafter for such further period as the ²[Provincial Government] may in each case determine.

(2) A Municipal Commissioner may be removed from office at any time by the ²[Provincial Government] if it shall appear to the ²[Provincial Government] that he is incapable of performing the duties of his office or has been guilty of any misconduct or neglect which renders his removal expedient.

¹ Chapter XIII A was inserted by s. 30 of the Bombay District Municipal Amendment Act, 1914 (Bom. 8 of 1914).

² The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Governor in Council" by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

(3) A Municipal Commissioner shall be forthwith removed from office by the ¹[Provincial Government] on the application of the Municipality in this behalf, provided that such application has been previously supported by not less than three-fourths of the whole number of councillors.

Salary of Municipal Commissioner.

186C. (1) A Municipal Commissioner shall receive from the municipal fund such monthly salary as the Municipality shall, subject to the approval of the ¹[Provincial Government], from time to time determine.

Prohibition of engagement in other business.

(2) A Municipal Commissioner shall devote his whole time and attention to the duties of his office as prescribed in this Act or in any other enactment for the time being in force, and shall not engage in any other profession, trade or business whatsoever :

Provided that he may at any time, with the sanction of the Municipality, serve on any committee constituted for the purpose of any local inquiry or for the furtherance of any object of local importance or interest.

Leave of absence.

186D. (1) The ¹[Provincial Government] may, from time to time, with the assent of the Municipality, grant leave of absence for such period as ²[it] thinks fit to a Municipal Commissioner.

Leave allowance.

(2) The allowance to be paid to a Municipal Commissioner, while absent on leave, shall be of such amount, not exceeding his salary, as shall be fixed by the ¹[Provincial Government] ;

Provided that, if the Municipal Commissioner is a salaried ³[servant of the Crown], the amount of such allowance shall be regulated by the rules for the time being in force relating to the leave allowances of salaried ⁴[servants of the Crown] of his class.

appoint-
substitute.

(3) During any absence on leave, or other temporary vacancy in the office, of a Municipal Commissioner the ¹[Provincial Government] may appoint a fit person to act as Municipal Commissioner. Every person so appointed shall exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred and imposed by or under this Act or by any other enactment for the time being in force on the person for whom he is appointed to act, and shall be subject to the same liabilities, restrictions and conditions to which the said person is liable.

Contributions from Municipality towards pension and leave allowances of Municipal Commissioner.

186E. (1) When a salaried ³[servant of the Crown] is appointed to be a Municipal Commissioner, the Municipality shall, unless specifically exempted wholly or in part from liability by the ⁵[Government in whose service he was employed immediately before the appointment], contribute to his pension and leave allowances to the extent required by proviso (b) to section 16.

(2) When a person other than a salaried ³[servant of the Crown] is appointed to be a Municipal Commissioner, the Municipality shall pay from the municipal fund the whole of his leave allowances fixed, as hereinbefore provided, by the ¹[Provincial Government], and may, with the sanction of the ¹[Provincial Government], grant him a pension or gratuity on retirement, or grant a compassionate allowance to his family on his death.
